OUTBREAK OCCURS IN SPANISH TOWN

Populace Rebelled Against Royal Authority and Made an Attack.

MUCH TROUBLE MAY RESULT

Two Persons Were Killed and Five Wounded in Sharp Fight—Troops Being Hurried to Scene. Firearms Used.

Malaga, Spain, April 10.—An outbreak occurred in the town of Canilles de Aceituno today in which two persons were killed and five wounded. Among the latter is a sergeant of the civil guard. The trouble arose over the seizure by the authorities of cattle, because the owner failed to pay the octroi dues. The cattle owner protested to the mayor, whose only reply was to order the man's arrest. The populace, which is violently hostile to the octroi dues, sided with the cattle man and massed in front of the city.

A stand by a small force of the civil guard to disperse the infuriated mob precipitated a sharp fight in which firearms were used freely.

Story From Madrid.

Madrid, April 10.—A republic which has been proclaimed at Canillas de Aceituno in the province of Malaga, is not considered seriously by the government. The populace of the town rebelled against the royal authority and attacked the barracks of the civil guard.

Several persons were wounded in the fighting that followed. Reinforcements of troops are being hurried to the scene.

The Republicans are somewhat excited over the movement in Malaga province. The easy overturn of the Portuguese monarchy appears to have inspirted the Republicans, who during the past two weeks have been using the Ferrer debate in the chamber of deputies as a means of agitating against the monarchial regime.

Had the insurrectionary outbreak occurred near the Portuguese frontier it would have given more concern to the government, which is determined not to tolerate the intervention of the Portuguese Republicans in Spanish affairs.

Canillas de Aceituno is a town of about 5,000 inhabitants in the Velaz-Malaga district in the Southern part of the province of Malaga. Malaga province borders on the Mediterranean, its capital, Malaga, being 55 miles northeast of Gibraltar.

King Alfonso had an unpleasant experience in Malaga last January following his arrival in that city from Madrid while en route for Mellila, Morocco. Accompanied by Premier Sanalejas and two other cabinet ministers, the King arrived at the railway station where he was acclaimed by a great throng that followed the carriage in which he was driven to the palace of the governor general. As he entered the palace doors there was and explosion in the crowd and two persons were injured. An official account of the incident stated that a civilian had dropped a pistol enclosed in a box. Many persons believed an attempt on the life of the monarch had been made.

DEFINE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE?

May be Outcome of Suit Brought in Boston.

Boston, April 10.—An amendment which is likely to bring the question of what the Christian Science religion is squarely before the courts is to be made to the papers in the suit brought in New Hampshire, by the son and adopted son of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy against the executor of her will and officers of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston. In the original bill, George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., Mrs. Eddy's son, and Dr. E. J. Foster Eddy, of Waterbury, Vt., her adopted son, ask the court to declare void the residuary clause of Mrs. Eddy's will, leaving about $2,000,000 to the Boston church on the ground that the statutes forbid so large a bequest to a single church.

Today former United States Senator William E. Chandler, chief counsel for the plaintiffs, announced that he will file an amendment attacking the validity of the residuary clause as "uncertain." Mr. Chandler said that the ground to be taken would be that whereas Mrs. Eddy left her property for the promotion of the Christian Science religion, on one knows exactly what the Christian Science religion is, so that unless this matter is determined by the courts, the residuary clause is void because of uncertainty.

A hearing in the case is expected at Concord, N. H., some time next week.

C., April 10.—The Yadkin River Power Company, of Raleigh, recently chartered with an authorized capital of $4,000,000, today filed in the office of the Register of Deeds here a first mortgage to the Old Colony Trust Company, of Massachusetts, to secure $15,000,000 first mortgage 30-year 5 per cent. gold bonds payable April, 1941, in denominations of $1,000 each.

There was also filed a deed from Edgar Clifford Potater and wife, Alice Taylor Potter, to the Yadkin River Power Company, conveying the Rockingham Power Company and all its plants and large tracts of land in Richmond and Anson counties.

Transmission lines are being surveyed from Raleigh to Henderson, Goldsboro, Fayetteville, Durham and other near-by towns. It is the general belief here that there is a plan on foot for the construction of one of the largest interurban lines in the South.

Dr. Williams was about 80 years old and had been in bad health for some time. He spent the Winter in Florida, returning home about March 1st. He was taken very sick about three weeks ago, since which time he had been confined to his room and his death was no surprise. He was a graduate in medicine, having received diplomas from two medical colleges, one in Vermont and one in Kentucky, but after graduating he followed his profession for only a short time when he engaged in other business. Dr. Williams is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters. The funeral was conducted this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church, and the remains were laid to rest in Meadow Brook cemetery with Masonic honors.

Advance Agent Main, of the John R. Smith Shows, was here today making arrangements for the appearance of that attraction here all next week.

Deputy Postmaster Edmund has been confined to his home for several days on account of sickness and while there is some improvement he is still very weak.——Mr. Geo. B. FIFTY FOUR RECOVERED.

Considerable Delay in Rescue Work —128 Victims In All.

Banner, Ala, April 10.—Only fifty-four bodies of the 128 victims known to have perished in the Pratt City Consolidated Coal Mine had been brought out up to 9 o'clock tonight. Sixteen other bodies are at the bottom of the pit and will be brought to the surface tonight.

There was considerable delay in the rescue work this afternoon because of the change in the air supply ordered by Mine Inspector Hisshouse.

Nine bodies brought from No. 7 this morning were horribly mutilated. Parts of one white body were found scattered for several yards, the rails of the track were twisted and mine cars had been hurled for some distance. It is believed that the center of the explosion Saturday morning was at this point.

The accident occurred from careless handling of powder, bringing it in contact with an exposed lamp. Mine officials still maintain that there were 128 men in the mine although there were rumors today that ten or fifteen in addition to this number might be found

COTTON PLANTERS ARE THE VICTIMS

New Orleans Exchange Made an Attack on Bagging and Tie Trusts.

ASKING CONGRESS FOR AID

Claim They Are Robbing the Planters of a Million Dollars Annually—Asks That it be Placed on the Free List.

New Orleans, April 10.—That the cotton bagging and tie trusts, "not satisfied with robbing the American cotton planter of nearly one million dollars annually through unjust tariff placed upon bagging and ties under the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, are planning to increase their levy on the cotton crop to $2,800,000, annually," is declared in resolutions adopted today by the New Orleans cotton exchange.

The resolutions appeal to Congress to place bagging and ties on the free list, and urged the enactment of the necessary legislation at the present extra session of Congress.

President W. B. Thompson, of the cotton exchange, in a letter which he addressed to each member of Congress, tells of the great importance to the South of this alleged tariff steal.

He says in part:

"The cotton crop of the South yields annually an average of about 12,000,000 of this total, approximately five-eighths or 7,500,000 bales, representing an average money value of over $500,000,000, are exported and exchanged for foreign gold. The mere statement of these facts attests the importance of the cotton producing industry, emphasizes the obligation which the country at large owes the producer of this crop, and establishes his right to at least just treatment at the hands of the general-making power.

"Under the present tariff law the duty on steel cotton ties amounts to .027 cents per bale, or to $324,000 on a crop of 12,000,000 bales. This tariff is prohibitive, as is shown by the fact that no steel ties are imported.

"Therefore, the government has no share in this impost, which consittutes simply and solely tribute levied upon the cotton farmer for the benefit of the cotton ties trust.

"The duty on jute bagging imposed by the present tariff law amounts to .05 cents per bale, or to $630,000 on a crop of 12,000,000. This tariff is to a large extent prohibitive inasmuch as it yields only about $100,000 revenues to the government. The balance of about $453,000 constitutes a tribute paid by the cotton farmer to the bagging trust.

"But the bagging trust is not satisfied with its share of this impost. It desires to raise the duty to a figure which will not only prevent the government from receiving any revenue therefrom, but will enable the trust to take from the farm four times as much as it has been able to take heretofore.

"From the reasons stated it will incontestably appear that not only the proposed outrage, but the present tax on bagging and ties is inequitable and wrong; and because the Western farmer has now and has had for more than fifteen years, his binder twine on the free list, and tax upon the Southern farmer stands condemned of the additional vice of discriminating."

EARTHQUAKE IN ITALY.

Two Shocks Felt in Rome Yesterday. Second Severe.

Rome, April 10.—Two earth shocks were felt here today. The first occurred early in the morning and the second, somewhat lighter, about noon. Some slight alarm was caused in the city, but in the prison there was considerable panic, the prisoners making two separate attempts at mutiny. These, however, were quickly suppressed.

In the villages surrounding Rome the shocks were more severe and at various places the people showed great alarm, although no damage was done.

Messina, April 10.—About 7 o'clock this evening in various districts in Sicily, loud rumblings were heard. A sudden flash of light was also observed and an electrical condition of the atmosphere. No earth shocks were recorded, and it is believed that the disturbance was caused by the falling of a ball of fire.

Napier, charged with using the United States mails to defraud diamond dealers in the North and the Southern Express Company, was found guilty by a jury in the Federal District Court here today and sentenced to six months imprisonment in Atlanta prison or pay a fine of $300 and serve two months in jail.

B. W. Duke, who was Napier's partner, voluntarily turned government witness and furnished the evidence which convicted Napier. The pair operated in Langley, S. C., and several Georgia towns. Their scheme was to have jewelry firms send them diamonds C.O.D. to the express office with privilege of examination and paste substitutes were used to replace the genuine before the stones were returned to the importers. Concerns in Salem, Mass., and New York were victimized.

LIBEL ACTION AT NORFOLK.

Filed by Tug Against British Steamer Beatrice Yesterday.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—That the British steamship Beatrice, loaded with creosoted piles and lumber, would have turned turtle in this harbor Saturday night, but for the fact she was beached Seawells Point until a portion of her cargo could be removed, is alleged in a $10,000 libel for salvage brought in the Federal Court here today by the Southern Transportation Company, owner of the tug Virginialan, which under great difficulties, it is averred beached the ship before she captized.

The libel says the mast of the Virginian observed the Beatrice as she lay with a decided list to port, and which percentibly and so rapidly increasing that those on the Virginian expected to see her captize momentarily; that with water pouring through port holes, engine room, and bunker hatches and the floor of her bridge awash, members of the Beatrice's crew leaped from the ship to the deck of the tug, one man leaping overboard in his fright, but being afterwards rescued.

JOHNSON FINALLY YIELDS TO DEATH

Noted Cleveland Man Passed Away After Long Illness Yesterday.

WAS CHEERFUL TO THE LAST

Condition Grave Since He Suffered Relapse Last Wednesday—Had Notable Career—Is Well Known Politically.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 10.—Tom L. Johnson, twice congressman from the 21st Ohio district, four times mayor of Cleveland, champion of three-cent street railway fare and prominent advocate of the single tax theories of the late Henry George, died in his apartments in the White Hall, East 107th street, at 8:45 o'clock tonight, after a long illness. Death was caused by cirrhosis of the liver. He was 57 years old.

Mr. Johnson had been ill for more than a year, but his condition was not thought serious until he suffered a relapse on Wednesday, March 15. He had been gaining strength ever since he came home after spending the Summer on Nantucket Island. On Saturday night, March 11th, he left his apartments and attended a banquet of the Nisi Prius Club, an organization of a Cleveland lawyer. He remained there until 2 A. M. and when he returned to his home he complained of not feeling well.

The following Wednesday his condition was such that he was obliged to go to bed. From that day to the time of his death his condition was grave. Despite the fact he realized he did not have long to live, the former mayor was cheerful and optimistic almost till the last.

Tom L. Johnson once referred to himself in a public address as "a storm petrel," and this metaphor aptly described him and indicated the course of his career. From the time he entered the offices of a Louisville Street Railway Company as a boy of 15 until his defeat for a fifth term as mayor of Cleveland, November 2nd, 1909, he was ever in the center of some storm, political or financial, and he often said, it was thus that he enjoyed himself most.

Johnson was born in Georgetown, Ky., July 18, 1854. He started to work in a Louisville traction office and when still a youth secured sufficient backing and bought a controlling interest in the Indianapolis street railways. In the 80's, with his brother Albert, he came to Cleveland and became interested in the street car systems here and assisted in a partial consolidation of them. He also entered into the steel manufacturing business at Johnston, Pa., Moxham, Pa., and Lorain, Ohio. In April, 1901, he was elected mayor of Cleveland on a platform which promised universal three-cent car fare.

After a fight with the street car company which lasted until 1908, and through four elections, in each of which he was triumphant, the Cleveland Traction Lines passed into the hands of the Municipal Traction Co. After six months' trial of operation at three cents, the people, at a referendum election, voted out the franchise and the municipal company passed into the hands of a receiver, where it remained until February, 1910. One more attempt was made by Mayor Johnson to secure the passage of the three-cent grants, but his proposals were rejected at an election held August 3rd, 1909. His own defeat followed three months later and on January 1, 1910, he surrendered the reins of office to the present mayor, Herman C. Baeher. Two months late three-ent fare was established, the result of Mr. Johnson's efforts. In 1903, while Mr. Johnson was mayor of Cleveland, he was nominated for governor by the Democrats of Ohio, but was unsuccessful at the election.

Crushed both in health and spirit, after his defeat by Baeher, the former mayor went abroad. He had roped to regain his healta, but came home no better. Besides his wife, Mr. Johnson is survived by one son, Loften, and a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Mariani.

TEXAS A TARGET AGAIN.

Probably Will be Consigned to Junk Heap This Time.

Washington, Aprid 10. The San Marcos, known in the days of her prime as the battleship Texas, will be the target for another ordnance test on April 19th, which probably will consign her to the junk heap. The monitor Tallahassee will bombard the old ship with 12-inch guns fired from varying ranges, to obtain the technical data for the Navy Department's information.

The experiment will be held in Chesapeake Bay, where the San Marcos now lies in the mud as a result of the grilling fire of the battleship New Hampshire in the recent ordnance test. All the valuable material including her guns, will be removed from the old vessel before the second experiment is held.

CAROLINA TURNS THE TRICK

Defeated Virginia at Charlotte by Score of 1 to 0.—Was Hard Fought Pitchers' Battle—Details of Game.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—In a game marked by brilliant playing Carolina took the second game of the annual series from the University of Virginia this afternoon by the score of 1 to 0, revenging herself for the defeat of Saturday at Greensboro. The rubber will be played April 22nd, either at Greensboro or Charlotte.

The Tar Heels made the lone run of the game in the third inning on a couple of passes by Rixey and a long hit by Calmes, which Driver fumbled and Witherington scored. Lee was steady at critical moment, mowing down the Virginans in one, two, three order. Pember made the feature play in the fifth by a long run and dive for a deep fly, turning a somersault, but holding to the sphere and cutting off a run. The weather was chilly, but the attendance was large.

It was the hardest fought pitchers' battle ever witnessed between the two rival universities.

Rixey pitched a beautiful game, bagged two of the four hits credited to his team and would not have been scored on had it not been for his wildness. Lee yielded only four hits to the heavy hitting Virginians and had them at his mercy at all times, especially in pinches. A continuous telegraphic report brought the happy news to the Carolina students and everything is wild on the "Hill" tonight. Score by innings:

AFTER THE AMMUNITION.

Offer of $20,000 for Delivery Across The Border.

New Orleans, April 10.—Twenty thousand dollars will be paid for the delivery in Mexico, at a point between El Paso and Chihuahua, of a consignment of $70,000 worth of ammunition for the Mexican revolutionists. A New Orleans business man today was appealed to b a member of the revolutionary junta ta devise some way of guaranteeing the delivery of the big shipment of ammunition said to be waiting on railroad side tracks in Pennsylvania.

Many experienced in the revolutionary game in New Orleans have never had serious trouble in getting guns and ammunition to Central American countries by steamer but they are without experience in overland shipments and the agent of the junta was unable to make satisfactory arrangements for the movement of the ammunition.

Danville, Va., April 10.—The Buffalo Eastern Leaguers today defeated Danvilel with ease — 6 to 1 — owing to wildness of Pitcher Krause, a left-hander.

FRAUD CHARGED IN CITY ELECTION

Sequel to Defeat of Asheville's Commission Form of Government.

Citizens Come Forward With the Facts and Investigation Will Follow—Convicts Herded in One Ward.

Asheville, N. C., April 10.—Emboldened by the published statement of ten reputable citizens of the fifth precinct of this city, wherein fraud and perjury in the recent commission government election were openly charged, other citizens came forward today with additional allegations.

Among other things, it is charged that ex-convicts herded others of their ilk, who were not entitled to vote, to the polls. In a message to a local newspaper today, Solicitor R. R. Reynolds, of this district, declared that he would not hesitate to do his duty; that all true bills returned by the grand jury would receive his prompt attention and no effort would be spared to convict the alleged fraudulent voters and perjurers.

TAFT AGAINST RECALL.

Wants This Provision Stricken Out of Arizona Constitution.

Washington, April. — Although President Taft might be unwilling to disapprove the constitution of Arizona on account of its provision for the recall of judges he is seeking to find a way by which that provision may be stricken out through the action of the people of Arizona themselves. The President looks with disfavor on the proposition for the recall of judges. He has, however, consulted frequently with Attorney General Wickersham and other members of his cabinet and has concluded that it might be unwise for him to disapprove the Arizona constitution on account of one clause.

To Chairman Flood, of the House Committee on Territories, and Representative Houston, of Tennessee, the President today lined a scheme to solve the problem. The President's proposition was that the constitution pending before Congress be adopted and that later the people of Arizona under the constitution power propose an amendment to the constitution permitting the recall to apply to all officers now mentioned, except judges As the President understands it now the people of Arizona, no matter how they felt upon the recall of the judiciary did not care to vote against the constitution as a whole and thus endanger their prospects of statehood. There is a sentiment against the recall of judges in Arizona in a submission of the question to voters would reveal it.

Representative Flood offered a counter proposition. He showed the President a proposed amendment to the Enabling Act providing for the admission of Arizona, which would obviate the necessity of executive approval of Arizona's constitution and make Congress alone pass upon it. The President would prefer, it was act to standdcaose said tonight, to allow the Enabling Act to stand. He might, however, accede to Mr. Flood's suggestion.

COMMISSION PLAN SUCCESS.

Senator Young Tells About Achievements—Senate.

Washington, April 10.—Senator LaFayette Young, of Iowa, today told the Senate all about the success of the commission plan of government as employed for the past three years in his home city of Des Moines, and advised other municipalities to adopt it in the interest of efficiency. "We have not reduced expenses," said he, "but we have secured more for our money."

Asserting that there is entirely too much machinery in the old type of city government and far more offices than the service demands, Mr. Young told how Des Moines had adopted the plan of placing its affairs in the hands of five commissioners with generally gratifying results. The commissioners are elected at the same time and to them is entrusted the duty of selecting all other city officials. Each member of the commission represents the head of a bureau. The Mayor complains that he has not enough to do. The commissioners are paid by the year and are expected to give all their time to the work.

"We have cut out all boards and commissioners," Mr. Young went on. "We never complain to paving inspectors; we complain to the commissioner having charge of the work. We never go to the subordinate. We go to his boss. No commissioner is entirely independent in his department. The law does not give him a department. His brother commissioners could change him from one department to another.

"Our city charter has the recall. I endorsed the recall features as applied to municipal governments; I do not endorse it in a wider field. We have the initiative and referendum. I think these provisions might be beneficial in cities but wholly impracticable in States."

The system, Mr. Young characterizes as the application of business common sense to municipal affairs, and said: "Governing municipalities is a business proposition and no sense political. Cut out the city hall; cut out the City Council."

KING GEORGE ON STAMPS.

Every Effort to Have Them in Time for the Coronation.

London, April 10.—Every effort is now being made to issue the new King George V postage stamps in time for coronation. To accomplish this, a heavy task lies before the printers, who to assure the success of the new issue and cope with the demand, are making arrangements to print one million stamps per hour. This will require about 200 hands, 2,000 reams of paper, and one ton of gum arabic.

As it is the intention of the post office to distribute the stamps simultaneously all over the British Isles, so that they may be on sale everywhere on a determined day, 1,000,000,000, stamps will be necessary to supply the 25,000 post offices of the United Kingdom.

The new design was approved quite recently by the King, the postmaster general and the board of inland revenue, and the royal mint is already busily engaged on the work of engraving the plates for the printing of the new stamps.

A keen philatelist, the King has shown a personal interest in the new issue, and has kept in constant touch with every phase of the work of printing the stamps. He personally examined and criticised the designs and sample engravings that were submitted to him.

Material alterations will be made in the design of the new stamps. As in the case of the King Edward stamps, the bust will remain unchanged, but the laurel and oak leaves have been replaced by some other appropriate symbol. The border and lettering have also been altered.

PRINZESS IRENE FLOATED.

Is Going Into Dry Dock for Thorough Examination.

New York, April 10.—Displaying two black balls, the usual "not under control" signal, the steamer Prinzess Irene today safely reached and passed in the harbor entrance which she missed last Thursday morning in the fog, burying her nose instead in the Fire Island sandpit, where she was fated to be held a prisoner for the better part of two days.

Except for a broken rudder post, the Irene was believed to be none the worse for her imprisonment off the Line Hill life saving station, from which she was so fortunately released yesterday afternoon after her 1,700 passengers had been taken off and landed safely on Saturday morning.

Because of the derangements of her steering mechanism, however, the big liner was not privileged to come in under her own steam. She was surrounded by a fleet of tugs which had escorted her from Fire Island waters to an anchorage outside the bar late this morning, and which at 5:25 o'clock this morning took up the slack of their hawsers and resumed the work of getting the liner into port.

At 5:45 o'clock the Irene passed in Sandy Hook in tow of the four tugs. At her dock she will be examined by divers and then sent to Newport News for examination in dry dock. The greater part of the cargo is still on board and it will be discharged at Hoboken as soon as possible.

SPURIOUS MONEY MAKERS.

Strange Story of Manufacture Comes From Little Village.

Budapest, April 10.—A remarkable story of the manufacture of spurious money comes from the little village of Oroszlama. The educational authorities had been advised that the village school house needed repairing, and one day a commission arrived unexpectedly to examine the building.

During the course of the inspection in one of the class rooms a strange looking apparatus was found, which proved to be a press for the manufacture of bank notes. Further searches revealed a small closet which had been turned into a regular mint, and there were bagfuls of ready-made silver and copper coins.

It appears that the schoolhouse, where principles of morality were inculcated into the village youth by day, was employed by night by many of their parents to make their fortunes on somewhat different lines. Several prominent inhabitants have been arrested.

Ruth Grey, the charming young mind reader, opened her engagement at the Academy last night before a large and well pleased audience. No such entertainment as presented by Miss Grey has ever been given in the city, in the opinion of those who saw the show last night. Without seeming effort this truly remarkable young woman answered over 100 questions and in each case her answers seemed just right. Just how this young woman is able to sit blindfolded on the stage with no one near here and read the innermost thoughts of her entire audience is beyond the ordinary ken. Still this is just what Miss Grey did last night.

James Thompson is without doubt

MISS RUTH GREY.

"Woman Wonderful" Appearing This Week at Academy.

a very clever magician and presents many new and amusing stunts in his line. He is a clever entertainer and adds much to the programme. Performances will be given each night and a special matinee for ladies only Wednesday.

Three Changes at Palace.

The performers this week at the Crystal Palace are said to be excellent. Carroll and Elier keep the audience laughing throughout their act, a jolly Irish affair, "The Doings of Mrs. Dooley," and Miss Nina Lester is most entertaining in her songs and acrobatic dancing. Both acts are being heartily applauded and thoroughly enjoyed. Instead of the regular change on Thursday, of vaudeville, the entire programme will be new on Wednesday and Friday—thus presenting three complete changes during the week. "The Doings of Mrs. Dooley" closes today, and is well worth a special trip to see and laugh. On tomorrow Carroll and Eller will play "The Rival of Mrs. Tetrazini," another "scream" and Miss Lester will sing several new songs. The pictures will be changed daily, and on Wednesday a special attraction will be added. Watch the notices.

The Bijou.

Another big week is in jolly swing at the popular Bijou. With three reels of fine motion pictures, featured by one of the greatest Biograph creations, this theatre inaugurated its week yesterday. The audiences were large at every performance and enjoyment was huge. Every one pronounced the bill one of the best ever seen in Wilmington. The singing of Mr. Frank Banks also came in for high praise, and it is well to pay tribute to the popularity of Mr. Banks, who possesses a splendid baritone voice. Today the Bijou will present another high-class bill, and one that will offer both comedy and dramatic masterpieces in the motion picture line.

Grand Theatre.

On today's bill will be found four of the greatest pictures the market has turned out recently. Among the collection is a great comedy, one that is fully in keeping with the times in Wilmington. It is entitled "Rival Candidates," and every aspirant for political honors should see it. Not only will it interest them but it will be a comedy treat for everyone. Other pictures on the bill are "Santo and His Dog," "Their Mother," and a great dramatic picture entitled "Monsieur." Mr. Henry will sing "This Rose Brings Dreams of You," while the orchestra has an entire change of programme. Doors open at 11 A. M.

Joyland.

Another big show goes on at Joyland today, and will be a hummer, as the shows this little theatre are presenting generally are. The films to be presented are all recent releases, and are of the best quality, posed by the highest salaried photoplay actors both in the United States and abroad. Mr. Reilly will have a new song, one that is just out of New York after a big hit in the metropolis. It is entitled "We've been Chums for Fifty Years," and is a very tuneful piece as well as beautifully illustrated. The show will open with a big dramatic picture and will end with a rip-roaring comedy to send you home feeling good. The still small prices will prevail and the doors open at 2:30 P. M.

A JOKE ON ANSON.

It Reacted on the Players the Captain Was Training.

In an article on baseball training camps Hugh S. Fullerton, in the American Magazine, recounts the following joke played on "Cap" Anson, the leader of the famous old White Stockings, during a training season some years ago:

"Anson was one of the most tireless runners in the world, and training under him was a nightmare to his players. Anse would drive his men for three hours in practice, then lead them in long runs, placing himself at the head of the procession and setting a steady, jogging pace. If he felt well the morning training was a Marathon route. I have seen players resort to all kinds of tricks to avoid those killing runs.

"One afternoon in New Orleans years ago Anson ordered ten laps around the field after practice, which on the old grounds was nearly ten miles. The afternoon was hot, one of those wilting southern spring days that sap the life out of men fresh from the rigors of a northern winter. The players fell into line, grumbling and scowling. Back of left field a high board fence separated the ball grounds from one of the old cemeteries, and near the foul line a board was off the fence. The first time the panting athletes passed the hole in the fence Dahlen gave a quick glance to see if Anson was looking and dived head first through the gap into the cemetery. The others continued on around the lot, but on the second round Lange, Ryan, Kittridge and Decker dived after Dahlen and joined him in the cemetery. The third trip saw the line dwindle to four followers, with Anson still leading. The fourth found only Anson and poor Bill Schriver, who had the bad luck to be directly behind his captain, plodding on, and on the next trip Schriver made the leap for life.

"Majestically alone, Anson toiled on, while the onlookers writhed with delight. Perhaps their behavior aroused suspicion or the absence of following footsteps attracted 'Cap's' attention. He stopped, looked at the vacant field; a grim grin overspread his red face, and he resumed the jogging. Straight to that fence he plodded, and, sticking his head through the hole, he beheld his team leaning against the above ground tombs, smoking and laughing. Just for that he marshaled them into line again and, sitting in the stand, watched them grimly until every man had completed ten rounds."

A Skylark For the Shelley Class.

I have heard of a professor of English in one of our universities who evidently felt that his department was laboring under disadvantages. Finding that his scientific colleagues were getting appropriations of astonishing liberality for illustrative apparatus, he put in his annual report a request for $5,000 for an aviary. When the president asked him to explain he said that it was impossible for him to teach poetry properly unless he had an aviary connected with his class room. "Then," he said, "when the class is reading Shelley's 'Skylark' I reach my long handed net into the cage, catch a lark and hold it up to them. And when we are studying 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner' my assistant will be stationed in the gallery with a crossbow to shoot a real, live albatross on the platform, thus giving the students opportunities for observation that doubtless Coleridge himself never had."—Independent.

The Orang Outang.

It is a most interesting sight to watch an orang outang make its way through the jungle. It walks slowly along the larger branches in a semi-erect attitude, this being apparently caused by the length of its arms and the shortness of its legs. It invariably selects those branches which intermingle with those of a neighboring tree, on approaching which it stretches out its long arms and, grasping the boughs opposite, seems first to shake them as if to test their strength and then deliberately swings itself across to the next branch, which it walks along as before. It does not jump or spring, as monkeys usually do, and never appears to hurry itself unless some real danger is present. Yet in spite of its apparently slow movements it gets along far quicker than a person running through the forest beneath.

ACCUSED MAN IS FOUND DEAD.

Michael Link, Alleged Bribe Taker, Who Became State's Evidence.

St. Louis, April 10.—Michael S. Link, former member of the Illinois State Legislature, who was indicted by a Chicago grand jury for perjury and turned State's evidence in the investigation in the election of United States Senator William Lorimer, was found dead in a bath tub in his home at Mitchell, Ill., today. Death, according to the family physician, was caused by apoplexy. He said a blood vessel had burst in the brain.

In the grand jury investigation in Chicago Link testified he knew nothing of bribery in the Illinois Legislature and he had been indicted on the charge of perjury. Link admitted he had received $1,000. He obtained immunity by appearing for the State.

After his perjury indictment was withdrawn Link issued a statement that he had never accepted a bribe but that the $1,000 was a gift and that it had no bearing on the Lorimer election.

Link's death occurred on the eve of the resumption of the Helm committee investigation of the Lorimer election, which is set for Thursday at Springfield. A statement was given out on Sunday that every member of the former Legislature who voted for Lorimer would be subpoenaed.

Washington, April 10.—The Senate today adjourned until Thursday. Senator Rayner did not deliver his speech concerning conditions in Mexico.

Walking.

The Almighty has not freighted the foot with a single superfluous part. Every inch of every foot is meant for use. When a man walks in the right way, speaking literally, the back of the heel strikes the ground first. Then the rest of the heel comes down, after which the outer edge of the foot takes the bulk of the burden until the forward movement shifts the weight to the ball of the foot and finally to the toes. The ideal step is a slightly rocking motion. At no time should the entire foot be pressed against the ground. Heel to toe is the movement. Try it and see how much farther and more easily you can walk. It's the Indian's way, and what poor Lo doesn't know about footwork can go into the discard. —New York Press.

A Lesson With His Autograph.

An admirer once wrote to Lowell describing his autograph collection and concluding with the remark, "I would be much obliged for your autograph." The reply came, bearing with it a lesson on the correct use of the words "would" and "should," which deeply impressed itself on the mind of the recipient. The response read:

Pray, do not say hereafter, "I would be obliged." If you would be obliged, be obliged and have done with it. Say, "I should be obliged," and oblige yours truly,

THE "LITTLE PRINCESS," WILL BE GIVEN NEXT WEEK.

No institution within Wilmington's boundary commands the unlimited respect and sympathy of all sects and creeds to a greater degree than the Y. M. C. A. Certainly no philanthropic organization has a right to demand more of this community. The Y. M. C. A. is in close touch with the young men of Wilmington. This organization today is doing much for the youth of Wilmington mentally, morally, spiritually and physically. All departments of the Y. M. C. A. are having more interest shown in them than ever before. This general interest shown by the young men is due to the efforts of the directors, the Auxiliary and secretary and his associate and physical director. In all other communities the size of Wilmington, unlimited financial support is given such philanthropic organization.

The Y. M. C. A. officers are working for a greater Y. M. C. A. Mr. Huntington and the Ladies' Auxiliary in their desire to have funds for all departments, decided upon bringing the young people of Wilmington together in a great spectacular play which has been presented under auspices of the leading churches all over the South, thereby giving the people of this community an opportunity to witness the only amateur spectacular play in America. Invitation were sent to the young people and 300 of the most talented ones responded. Over 23,000 young people have participated in this wonderful play.

Rehearsals are held every afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building and at night at the Woolvin building and are proving a great source of pleasure to every one. Judging from the press notices, no amateur play of this magnitude was ever attempted before. The Y. M. C. A. is fortunate in securing "Little Princess" for Wilmington as the play is in demand everywhere.

This production necessarily is the center of attraction for youthful minds and hearts just now. This play has the support of the pulpit and press all over the land. The play is under the exclusive direction of Mr. Howard Haynes Donohoo and promises to be the most elaborate production attempted in Wilmington in a long time.

The story of "Little Princess" revolves about a princess who practiced "Spring roses and pink and red, to mortals who lived and not to mortals when dead." So this princess is rewarded by the Prince of Silver Heart selecting her to reign with him in his Garden of Roses, which is one of the most beautiful scenes of this entrancing spectacle. Every citizen who loves a glimpse of Fairy Land and bright, catchy music should not fail to attend the performances. Indications point to packed houses at both performances, Thursday and Friday nights of next week at the Academy of Music. All parts have been assigned and the play will go off with a snap probably never before seen in amateur productions here.

The services were held in the Parish House of St. James' Episcopal church, and were largely attended by the Greek citizens. A feature of the celebration of Independence Day was an address by Mr. D. G. Vafiadi, of this city, and was in every way a splendid discourse and very appropriate to the occasion. In the afternoon two Greek children were baptised, these being the little daughter of Mr. N. Costello and the little son of Mr. A. Mavronichols.

SECOND WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

Baptist Revivals Continue With Renewed Interest and Large Congregations—Fine Services Held Sunday.

The revivals being held in the Baptist churches of the city entered the second week of the campaign with splendid services and large congregations Sunday. The meetings will continue through the week and possibly longer. Each service is attended by a large congregation and considerable interest is being manifested by the church members as well as those not professing Christians.

Rev. H. A. Hunt held three fine meetings at Southside church Sunday. The young people's service at 3 o'clock was attended by as many as could get in the building and many were deeply moved by the message on the subject, "First Things First," and quite a number accepted Christ.

The men's meeting at the First church was well attended and Evangelist Walker delivered a powerful address on the subject, "The Bed too Short and the Blanket too Narrow." The evangelist explained that this striking figure set forth a very miserable plight. He showed that such a bed was too uncomfortable for even a lawyer to "lie" on. He said that this was a striking way of conveying the truth that when the testing hour of death came many things held as a false hopes in life would be found insufficient to give comfort, and it is of the highest importance to consider this for the last chapter in every man's life, He Died. If we could see a little in the future we would behold a funeral procession, an open grave, it would be ours. Every man has a place in his life for God and, men, he said, you will never be complete till you let Him fill that place. The most pitiable thing in the world is not a man with a dwarfed body, or an idiotic mind, but one who is Godless. I want to mention some of the beds that will be too short.

First, the bed of the skeptic. Skepticism and infidelity have never done anything for this world and have utterly failed in death. The bed is too short. Men who claim to be skeptics usually tell you they have intellectual difficulties. It is not rue, men are skeptics because they have moral difficulties. This he illustrated by telling of the drunken wag who staggered up to Ingerso after one of his lectures and said, 'that's right, Bob, knock the bottom out of hell or we are goners." Some are better than others, but not a man here is good enough to go to heaven. Your bed is too short.

Fourth, I am a member of the church. Have you nothing else but church membership. If not your bed is too short. These cursing, cheating, impure members of the church will never reach heaven unless they get religion.

Sixth, some are saying I am in the lodge; that is good enough religion for me. I am a Master Mason, and the man who says that is an enemy to his lodge as well as the church. The lodge is an organization for mutual help but does not claim to prepare men for heaven. A man may be a good Mason and reject the Christian religion entirely. He may be a Jew or a Mohammedan and reject Christ.

In conclusion he spoke of the one bed that is sufficient to every need—the Christian religion. No one ever embraced it and in a dying hour regretted it. At the close of his address practically every man present indicated his position by standing and many said they did not regard themselves right with God, but wanted to be and asked for an interest in the closing prayer.

At Brooklyn church, Evangelist H. H. Holcomb preached three soul-stirring sermons Sunday which were listened to by large and attentive congregations. The church was crowded at the woman's meeting in the afternoon and much interest was shown. At night the congregation was again large and attentive and the sermon on "Where the Light Goes Out on the Road to Hell" was received with marked attention and seriousness, and there were several professions of faith. The meeting last night was the best one yet held during the series, when the evangelist preached on the three woes from the text, "One Woe is Past and Behold there Comes Two Woes more Hereafter." The first woe, he said, was the death of the sinner, the second his judgment and the third, his eternity in hell. Many expressed an interest and there were some professions.

First Baptist Last Night.

Evangelist Walker preached a great sermon on the Second Coming of Christ at the First Church last night. He called attention to the fact that one verse in every 25 in the Bible refers to the second coming. Several passages were read, such as, "Waiting for the coming of the Savior," "Looking for the Savior," "Until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ," "Behold He cometh and every eye shall see Him." The last thing Christ said was, "Surely I come quickly." Some say He is coming constantly—that He comes when we die, but the Book says we go to Him not that He comes to us.

At the Lord's table, we quote His words, "As oft as ye eat this bread and drink this wine ye do show forth the Lord's death until He come." One end of the table rests on the cross, one end on the throne. The whole of the Old Testament is one great voice saying, "Jesus is coming." He came. Then followed calvary, the resurrection. On Calvary He settled the sin question. If he did not settle it for you, then you must settle it yourself. Ask what is the next great event and many answer, "The Judgment Day." It is not. Christ shall come with His holy angels. The dead in Christ shall rise first and they with the righteous shall be caught up together with Christ in the air. Then there shall begin such tribulation as the world has never known. Unless deceived by the signs of the times this old world now is ripening for those days. After the days of tribulation Christ shall reign with His people on the earth 1,000 years.

The Bible tells us that "as it was in the days of Noah so shall it be in the days of the Son of Man." At the time of Noah the flood destroyed the world except those saved in the ark. At this time all shall be destroyed except those saved by Christ. God gathers His church. They are the "called out" of the world. The Book does not teach that we are to convert the whole world, but we are to preach the Gospel to the world.

God visited the Gentiles to take out a people for himself. Then he says, "I will restore the tabernacle of David." He will restore Jerusalem to the Jews.

The Millerite fixes the time for the coming of Christ which Christ Himself says no man knoweth, not even the angels in heaven. The post-milleniast fixes a time when he can't come. According to him Christ can't come until we have converted the world. Let no man muffle the word "Watch." No man watching for the coming of Christ can live an impure life. He may come at any time, tonight, next month, next year, a million years from now. No man knows. I don't want to lie down with my business crooked, my conscience seized with sin if I think Christ may come at any time. What would you think of a bride who said, "I love him" and then refused to take the marriage vows? She must go to the altar.

Christ's bride must come out of the world and be united with Him. Two things are absolutely sure—the absolute certainty of His coming and the uncertainty of the time. That is kept a secret from the angels.

Breathlessly the congregation listened to the argument and the appeal of the evangelist and many retired wondering how any unsaved man could resist the appeal.

The meeting is growing in interest with each service. Prof. Woleslagel is delighting the congregation with his solo singing and the volunteer choir, both senior and junior, are surprising the congregation with the splendid music they are rendering. The power of God's spirit is upon the services. The hours of the services are 10:30 A. M. and 8 P. M.

EDITOR WAS A HERO.

Dies From Injuries Sustained in Rescue Work at Fire.

Seattle, Wash., April 10.—Charles Alf Williams, aged 51 years, assistant managing editor of the Seattle Times, died today as the result of injuries received in the Minneapolis Tribune fire November 30, 1889, when eight persons were killed and the lives of 40 more were saved by the heroism of Williams, then managing editor of the Tribune. In his youth Williams was a noted oarsman and wrestler. When fire broke out on the eighth floor of the Tribune building panic seized upon all those on the upper three floors and men began to leap from windows into a light court, to be killed on the stones below. Williams, by command and physical force, got control of the struggling men and marshaled them down a fire escape at the head of which he and his brother stood. After the last printer had passed to safety the Williams brothers followed.

Charles was burned about the head and inhaled flames and had been more or less of an invalid ever since, but retained his mental vigor.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—Miss Helen Gould left today for Old Point Comfort, following a visit to the enlisted men of the navy at this station. Before leaving she made a personal inspection of the St. Helena training station and saw 500 apprentice sailors in dress parade.

REGISTRATION OVER 2,500

Books Closed Yesterday Afternoon for Municipal Primary and Election. Fair Representation in All Wards.

The registration books for the municipal primary tomorrow week and the general celction on Tuesday, May 1st, closed yesterday afternoon at the several polling places, and from returns received as nearly after that hour as possible, the total registration in the city is shown to be 2,528.

With the outlook for a very light registration the first ten days of the period allotted for this qualification of the voters of the city, there seems to have been a general awakening of the citizens towards the last and the books now contain a fair average registration for a city election. While the figures may not be absolutely correct, they are compiled from the report of the registrar at each precinct immediately after the close of the books.

By wards the registration is is follows:

First Ward—First Precinct	135
First Ward—Second Precinct	353
Second Ward	345
Third Ward	544
Fourth Ward	409
Fifth Ward—First Precinct	322
Fifth Ward—Second Precinct	420
Total	2,528

The books will be open between now and election only for the purposes of challenging and registering any person who may have become of age since yesterday.

AN IMPORTANT BILL.

To Stop Competition Between Postal Service and Express Companies.

Washington, April 10.—A bill to prohibit express companies and common carriers from competing with the Postoffice Department in the transportation of mail matter weighing less than 11 pounds, was introduced in the House today by Representative Howard, of Georgia.

The bill sets forth that the express companies have encroached upon the constitutional right of the government to maintain a monopoly in transportation of mailable matter. The bill is calculated to strengthen the authority of the government in the control of mail carrying, and makes the present statute incapable of misconstruction.

RIXEY DID NOT APPEAR.

Bond of $40,000 Declared Forfeited at Newport News.

Alexandria, Va., April 10.—Because C. Jones Rixey, president of the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit & Trust Corporation, failed to make his appearance in the Corporation Court this morning for the purpose of renewing his bond, his bond in the sum of $40,000 was declared forfeited by the court and a rule returnable at 11 o'clock April 21st, next, was issued to show cause why the bond should not be forfeited. The court also ordered a capias on the new indictments recently returnable by a grand jury in the court against the accused banker.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY SOON.

Prediction of Dr. McPhatter to Missouri Society of New York.

New York, April 10.—Two hundred members of Missouri Society, of New York, had as their guests at the annual banquet dinner tonight the presidents of ten other State societies, and Dr. Neil McPhatter, of the Canadian Club.

Dr. McPhatter predicted that Canadian reciprocity would soon be realized, and in speaking of the proposed arbitration treaty with England, he said:

"This suggestion means more for the advancement of the English-speaking people than any ever propounded."

Among the president of other State societies who were present and exchanged complimentary speeches with the Missourians, were Harden H. Fitts, Alabama; F. F. Allen, Georgia; Dr. Virgil P. Gibney, Kentucky; E. S. Mendels, Louisiana; Dr. W. B. Pritchard, North Carolina; Augustus Van Wyck, South Carolina, and Walter L. McCorkle, Southern Society.

LARDLESS COOKERY.

Horseless carriages, wireless telegraphy, and now lardless cookery! Lard has one fatal objection—it is indigestible. Nine-tenths of the indigestion with which the American nation is afflicted is due to the use of pork and its by-product—lard.

Recognizing this, The N. K. Fairbank Company, has placed on the market Cottolene, which can be used for cooking purposes in every way that lard or butter can, and which makes delicious, digestible and nourishing food. It is recommended by physicians, even to invalids, and it is cheaper than lard, one-third less being required.

Tuesday, April 11, 1911.

Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson—the congressman whose hobby is the yellow bogeman.

A fool always shows signs of his opinion that he has the best of an argument.

It is safe to asserst that the extra session of Congress will in no wise detract from interest in Easter millinery.

In speaking of mean men, don't overlook the Boston masculine who bought an automobile and induced his mother-in-law to practice for the mad speed meet.

The principal issue in next year's campaign will be the gentleman who would rather be President than to accept a gift of $2,000,000 from the plotocratic citizens of Memphis.

It is announced from London that one of the ladies selected by the Queen, to act as her trainbearers at the coronation of King George, is Lady Eileen Knox. Therefore, the coronation will not be in the category of what Lady Eileen knocks.

The Hon. William J. Bryan has refused $2,000,000 as an inducement for him to make his home in Memphis. It should be stated that Memphis is all right as a place of residence, but so long as Washington has the Presidential mansion the Colonel wouldn't think of moving anywhere but to the National Capital.

In order to get the worth of your dollar spend it at home where it may get in your clutch again. Kiss your dollar good-bye when you send it to a distant city where some other fellow will get it on pay day. A fool and his money needn't part for good, if he leaves it at home where he can get another chance at it.

The Richmond Virginian says a South Carolina woman is laying claims to the whole of Richmond. We wouldn't be surprised at any time to hear that some lady in South Carolin asserts ownership of Wilmington, but her claim would immediately be disputed by all gentlemen who imagine they own the city.

There is a rumor that the Hon. William J. Bryan will take the stump in Virginia to urge the defeat of Senator Thomas S. Martin. Since the stump in Virginia is red-hot and still a-heating, we rather think there will be burnt fingers for any outside spieler who butts into a political contest that promises to assume every feature of a thousand family rows.

Wilmington does more for the knockers than the knockers do for Wilmington. Some people knock because they don't know any more than the traditional fellow who dug the foundation from under his own feet. Verily, verily, the man who saws off the limbs upon which he is sitting is bound to hit the grit with a thud that will wake him up to the fact that his stunt will result in his own injury.

Says the Richmond News Leader: "Americus J. Johnson, a well known Roanoker, attacked the editor of the World, James M. Williams, in his office this afternoon. Reaching Mr. Williams, Johnson is said to have used some strong language, whereupon Williams threw a whetstone at him, and leaping over the table struck at Johnson. Neither of them was hurt to any extent." To get after an editor with a sharp stick, and for an editor to come across with his whetstone, is proof enough that there was something doing to keep it from being dull at Lynchburg.

GOOD PLANS FOR CITY MAKING.

Cities are not made while you wait. They are made by hard work and co-operation among a city's people. It quite often happens that an immense amount of energy and no little money is thrown away on experiments and working along ineffectual lines, and that is the reason why cities are now recognizing that the most economical effective way to get publicity and get things going the right way is to engage expert boosters and professional city promoters. These are the men who know how to conduct a publicity campaign to start with and who have practical ideas to suggest for the co-operation of all who want to work for the upbuilding of their city.

Western cities seem to have led Eastern cities in establishing publicity bureaus and keeping a man on the job to arouse interest at home and attract attention from abroad. However, some of our Atlantic seaboard cities have followed suit and are getting results. Jacksonville has already scored heavily and Charleston is coming up all the time under the work of Secretary McKeand who was imported from Oklahoma City. Charlotte has been in the game for a number of years and the results there speak for themselves. Baltimore has at last recognized the true way and now that great Maryland city is making a winning campaign for a greater Baltimore. Leading business men there enlisted in the work and without wasting any time they imported a Western city promoter in the person of a gentleman who is called Tom Richardson. He comes from the Pacific coast and is a hustler who has been working up things for Portland. He is a municipal upbuilder with almost a national reputation and he has landed in Baltimore and gone to work. Mr. Richardson's first effort was to get the Baltimore boosters into good working shape, and in a recent talk to a large committee of Baltimore citizens he gave out this splendid suggestion of an efficient working body:

"Make each member of the executive committee of 10 a chairman of an important committee, and when this board meets it is a concrete gathering of all the forces of a great organization.

"You want to adopt a plan of monthly payments for a time of, say, not less than three years, because after lump payments are once paid a man is relieved, to a certain extent, of the responsibility and forgets that he is under obligation.

"No man or a dozen men can do the work here unless he has behind him the strength and industrial, commercial and social Baltimore.

"Your religion has got to be Baltimore. You have got to think Baltimore, eat Baltimore, to act Baltimore from January to December.

"You must have an auxiliary committee of not less than 1,000 of the influential, good women of Baltimore, who will agree to say that we will shop at home. You may not meet their approval on the basis of dollars and cents, but you will win their approval if you tell them they are taking the bread out of the mouths of good women and men in this town who would earn it if the money was not spent somewhere else.

"Quit sending money to Chicago and other mail-order houses. You can buy better goods cheaper here at home. A woman not 28 miles from Philadelphia whose husband was foreman of a carpet mill sent to Chicago for a rug that cost her $21.80; it would have cost her $9.25 if she had bought it from her husband's mill, where it was made.

"Make your work for Baltimore your religion, get your preachers to preach "Baltimore" sermons, preach the advancement of Baltimore. Preach it, teach it, talk it.

"You can raise any sum you want for this work if you will only go after it yourselves and pay something. Don't be like an old uncle of mine, a member of the Baptist church for over 60 years and who was very proud of the fact that i didn't cost him a cent.

"You want to keep doing the little things. Don't try after great things all the time. This is just a big country town, but I love it for that reason. A man has time here to shake you by the hand.

"If you are going on a trip to New York, send a notice to the New York papers that a big man from Baltimore is coming. Anybody is big who comes from Baltimore; or, to the Portland papers, the Seattle Commercial Club, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, a notice that So-and-so is going to be at the St. Francis to get his dinner. He will be interviewed and he will talk Baltimore.

"Let us get a condensed leaflet and put it in every envelope that goes out of Baltimore. You can circulate a million for $150. This advertising spirit will take hold of your retailers and will add much to the trade of the city. The first letter I wrote in spirit will take hold of your retailers asking an increase in advertising. They said they had all the business. They increased the advertising and doubled their business in a year."

The Star has been hammering along this same line for years but it is well enough to refer to it all again in the way Tom Richardson puts it. His suggestion about constituting the executive committee of a working body out of the chairmen of all the sub-committees is a capital one. When the executive committee meets, all the sub-committees represented by their respective chairmen can be heard from, and thus it is that it will be like a team composed of all lead-horses.

The Star would suggest that it is Wilmington's time to move. About the best way to start is to blow each other up for taking such a long time about starting something. The first thing to start is a campaign fund to take the place of hot air as the capital stock of a booster aggregation. We have maneuvered long enough. Real boosting is a business proposition.

THE CAROLINA YAM.

Georgia may be a pretty good yam growing country, but why waste time considering it when yam production in eastern North Carolina has reached the acme of perfection. In eastern North Carolina the sweet potato is planted and sweeter potatoes are gathered. The Norton yam and other varieties revel in the loamy soil of tidal North Carolina and the whole bunch go right to work loading up on sugar, so that when they are gathered and cooked they candy in the process. When Carolina yams are cooked right, and it can be done in several ways, Bob Phillips, the epicurean editor of the Greensboro News, would swallow his tongue if he should try to eat them.

All Georgians would be curly-headed if they were to get ther yams from North Carolina, inasmuch as they won't raise enough to supply their own home demand and actually are supplying their needs with potatoes grown in other States. The Star remarked some time ago that the farmers do not plant enough potatoes (either sweet or Irish), and, of course, we threw it out as a hint that the production should be increased so we could quit sending money away from home to buy what could be raised in abundance with very little effort. Keeping money at home is the foundation of prosperity, for no country can possibly become independent when it buys away from home what can just as well be produced at home. This includes more things than potatoes, but this is a yam article and we bring Georgia into it because the Atlanta Journal says:

"'I'm in the market for a car of canned potatoes and a half dozen or more jobbers here are in the same fix,' said H. L. Singer, the jobber. Continuing, he said, 'Though Georgia produces the best potatoes in the world, we have to go to Virginia for them, and this makes the retail price 15 cents when, it should be only 10 cents. Some few years ago everybody got to putting up potatoes and glutted the market; then all quit. Georgia must can more stuff of other kinds and better care must be used in securing uniformity in putting up the fruit. The packer must remember that his goods will be cut and compared with those from markets where the greatest care is taken.' Mr. Singer added: 'I have made a careful study of canned fruits and vegetables. No one section has all of it. For the best peaches we must go to New York. For the perfection of pears and asparagus, California ranks first, Maine for corn and Georgia for watermelons, sweet potatoes, rutabagas, sea island cotton and more things nearly perfect than any section of the globe'."

Around Wilmington sweet potatoes are kept sound just as they come from the ground and our market is now full of fine specimens without a flaw. Of course, for commercial purposes in distant markets the canned potato is the thing, for there is a great saving in transportation, while the canned goods will keep indefinitely. A cannery would be a good thing at Wilmington and there are dozens of products besides potatoes that can be supplied to markets that will be eager for all kinds of canned products.

That Mr. Singer, while calling for canned potatoes, goes on to give vent to the mistaken idea that prevails all over the country that the products of some other countries are superior to our own in some particulars. We buy Maine corn because we do not can the delicious sweet corn grown in the South—the Southern "roasting ear" that is more succulent and palatable than all other corn grown in the cooler climates. Why, meal and grits ground from Southern corn are superior to those products from any other corn, and yet we persist in eating tasteless cornbread and grits made from corn that isn't in it with the Southern grown article.

California fruit is fine because Californians grow fine fruit and put it on the market, while we have a fine fruit country and have made no effort whatsoever to make it equal to any other fruit country in the world. No finer asparagus and other such products grow than are produced along the South Atlantic coast, and we could go right on producing numerous other things that we don't grow because we are beind the times. Georgia didn't know so long ago that she could become famous for watermelons and peaches, and North Carolina only a few years ago woke up to be famous for her strawberries, lettuce and other early vegetables that now bring here hundreds of thousands of dollars, where nothing was doing till we tried.

THE FATE OF DISCOVERERS.

When discoverers come to the front it is not surprising to have skeptical and uninitiated persons to come forward in efforts to discredit them. Dr. Cook as a mountain climber and pole discoverer can bear us out in that particular, and the doctor clearly is in a position to sympathize with Mr. G. W. Westbrook and The Star for being scoffed at for making the hog potato famous as a new stock food. The skeptical and jealous Maxton Scottish Chief again discusses the latest valuable discovery in this manner:

"Col. Clawson, the versatile editor of the Wilmington Star, sticks to it that he has not been hypnotized by Mr. Westbrook's new 'hog potato' story. He thinks it the real thing and has no fear of starving if the Smithfield ham crop fails. However, he is under some strange influence, as he proves by quoting The Scottish Chief's friendly action in setting him right as to the artichokes and crediting it to the Red Springs Citizen. If he don't look out Dick Branch will be gunning down toward the sounds."

Of course, we owe an apology to Dick Branch, who is an unoffending editor and who was never guilty of applying to this deponent such an epithet as "Colonel." On the "Colonel" score, we were advised long ago that a protest would make it worse, for "Colonel" Wade Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, "Colonel" Joe Reece, of the Greensboro Record, "Judge" R. B. Clark, of the Statesville Landmark, and others of the Boys' Brigade, have had titles conferred upon them for envy, spite and fun.

A politician who doesn't know how to keep from putting his foot in it is always heading himself off from where he wants to go. This has no personal significance but it is a contribution to the lore which is recognized for its veracity.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Our mobilizers should be transferred to Washington by April 17th, when the Daughters' Annual Rumpus begins.—Richmond Virginian.

We do not object to that South Carolina woman claiming Richmond, but we do hope in case the city is awarded to her, she will not make it part of the Palmetto State. Incidentally, she is not the only person suffering from the impression of individual ownership of this city. — Richmond Virginian.

There are thousands of Democrats in Virginia who hope there is truth in the report that Mr. Bryan intends taking the stump and urging the defeat of Senator Martin this Summer The first one is Mr. Jones and the others are those who really desire that gentleman's election to the Senate.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Star says that this is what the Indians of Canada think of the reciprocity agreement: "Toni atoba w'doiji w'denaalegon ni pastoni kehi sogmo oda mawadod emawoka wakoswa anoba." The Charlotte News, which doesn't know any more about reciprocity than the Indians declares that they have the correct opinion of it.—Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont.

Manufacturing makes towns, says the Wilmington Star. There is no room for discussion of this point, but it has to be emphasized continuously in order to hold half the peoople in line on the proposition to get more factories. That is about the condition in Greensboro, and it is even worse, no doubt, in Wilmington, where it seems that most of the people do not yet realize the value of industries.—Greensboro Telegram.

At the annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of Coldwell, N. J., authority was given to the trustees to sell the old parsonage property, where Grover Cleveland was born in 1837, to an association which wishes to preserve the place as a memorial. The association is made up of friends of the late President, some of whom are residents in this borough, but most of whom live in New York.—Trenton Times.

Colonel Thomas Clawson, the agricultural editor of the Wilmington Star, resents with some asperity and at some length, the assertion of the editor of the Maxton Scottish Chief, that the aforesaid Colonel Thomas Clawson does not know the difference between a hog potato and an artichoke. He dismisses the entire subject with the assertion that "the 'hog potato' is no joke." But it is an artichoke all the same, Tommas.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Magnificent new soil food for vines has been discovered in the waste material which is thrown out by the iron works in the Midlands and Wales. This is the basic slag, huge mounds of which surround most iron works and which has hitherto been regarded as waste. Large cargoes of the basic slag, for which good proces are obtained, are being shipped to the south of France, Italy, Spain and other vine growing countries, and an important industry is said to be rapidly developing at Ellesmere port in Cheshire.—New Orleans States.

"Great Britain—England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales—has a population less than one-half that of the United States. Figures just compiled for the fiscal year show that the collections from taxation will amount to upwards of $1,000,000,000. Here is a revenue equal to about that of the United States. In other words, the citizens of Great Britain pay individually for the support of the government twice as much as do the citizens of the United States."—Philadelphia Inquirer. Yes, but, while Great Britain may tax her people twice as heavily as the United States taxes her citizens for the support of government, it does not subject them, through the instrumentality of a Protective Tariff, to a private toll three times as large in the aggregate. In the United Staes it is not the taxes paid into the public treasury for the support of the government that burdens the people, but the tolls which the government licenses the privileged few to extract from the pockets of the many for their own private aggrandizement. The former might well be borne without complaining, though in this there is ample room for material reduction without injury to the public service or diminution, of its efficiency. The latter has long since become well night intolerable and, if continued, will soon become altogether so.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

FOR ROADS AND BRIDGES

Election Called by County Commissioners to Determine Whether County Will Issue $50,000 Bonds—Other Matters.

The Board of County Commissioners in adjourned session yesterday afternoon called an election to be held May 31st, under authority of an act of the last General Assembly, to determine the question of whether New Hanover county shall issue bonds to the amount of $50,000 for the purpose of continuing the work of improving the roads and construction of bridges in the county; named the registrars and judges of election; ordered that the registration books for said election be held open for 20 days, beginning April 28th, and transacted some other business, adjourning at 5 o'clock to meet again Monday unless the chairman sees fit to call the board together earlier.

Chairman Duncan McEachern presided and in attendance were Commissioners Metts, Divine and Vollers, aso Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, county attorneys, and the clerk, Mr. John Haar. Chairman McEachern called attention to the act of the recent Legislature authorizing an election on the board issue question and spoke of the urgent need of this money if the county is to be in position to bear its portion of the expense of the bridge across the Northeast river, near Castle Haynes, continue the extensive road improvements and pay New Hanover's portion in providing the free ferry across the Cape Fear river at Wilmington. In calling the election, naming the registrars and judges and providing for the registration, the board adopted the following:

"The Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county, in accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, passed at its 1911 session, entitled, 'An Act to Empower the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county to issue bonds for road improvement and to construct bridges,' and by virtue of the power herein given do hereby call an election to be held by the qualified electors of New Hanover on the 31st day of May, 1911, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, to determine whether New Hanover county shall issue fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) of its bonds, with interest coupons attached to continue and complete the repairing, construction and improving the public roads and bridges in said county.

"At said election the ballots tendered and cast by the qualified electors shall have written or printed on them 'For continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county,' or, 'Against the continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county. All qualified electors who favor the issue of said bonds shall vote 'for continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county,' and all qualified voters who are opposed to the issue of said bonds shall vote 'Against the continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county.'

"For the purpose of this election, as authorized by the said act, the said Board of Commissioners do hereby order a new registration for said election and the following are designated as the polling places for said townships, precincts and wards and the persons herinafter named are appointed as the registrars and judges of elections in said townships, precincts and wards, towit:

"Cape Fear township, Blossom's store, Castle Haynes, W. B. Hand, registrar; W. H. Shearin and J. H. Johnston, judges.

Harnett, first division, Sanders' store, Delgado, W. B. Beery, registrar; W. A. Woods and E. C. Holt, judges. Second division, Township House, F. A. Montgomery, registrar; D. D. George and Andrew Capps, judges.

Mr. Owen Martindale appeared before the board with reference to hauling produce over the railroad used in building Federal Point road. Chairman McEachern stated he had been approached with reference to the matter, but had declined to act without authority from the board. After some discussion, the mater was left with the chairman with power to act. In this connection it was ordered by the board that the foreman and engineer of the construction on the road be notified to prohibit persons not connected with the work from riding on the train.

Mr. T. O. Bunting, who was appointed at he last meeting as assistant tax assessor for Wilmington township, sent in his resignation, stating that owing to his recent severe illness his physician had advised against his acceptance of the position. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting of the board. The matter of making an appropriation to the Wilmington Light Infantry was left open until some subsequent meeting. The question before the board with reference to the appropriation is whether it will be made $300 or $600.

MAY FIGHT THE REGULATIONS

New Rules Governing Navigation on Cape Fear Comes Before Chamber of Commerce Tomorrow—Towing Rates.

The rigid regulations governing navigation of the Cape Fear river, adopted by the War Department recently at the instance of the United States Engineer's office here, and which lately prompted the owners of tug boats in the harbor to increase towing rates which, it is predicted, will eventually injure the port, will be brought up and discussed at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow at noon.

Parties at the port interested in tow boats and navigation of the river will be present at the meeting and it is understood that strong opposition to the regulations will be brought to bear The increase in towing rates, which was forced by the rigid rules, it is declared by navigators will materially injure the commerce of the port, as far as domestic shipping is concerned, and will turn shipping away from Wilmington.

Owing to the fact that the rates for towing have been increased, the rigid regulations will not cause a loss to the tug boat interests, but they will fight the rules, as well as other navigators on the river. It is agreed by the shipping interests that a number of the regulations are good and will benefit navigatin of the Cape Fear, but others are more radical, it is said, than at other ports along the Atlantic seaboard.

The matter will be presented to the Chamber from the beginning, with contentions both from the War Department and those who oppose the rules for a general discussion by the Chamber before any action is taken.

As the matter is of vital interest to the port of Wilmington, it is urged that all members of the Chamber be present.

EXODUS OF WOMEN.

Several Denizens of Underworld Leave and Others Arrested.

Following the action of the grand jury Saturday afternoon in bringing indictments against 18 women of the underworld, one colored and the others white, and the current rumors that many others would be "pulled" by the police, there is said to have been a general exodus of women of disrepute, especially colored, Sunday night.

However, according to reports there are still a large number here. Capiases were issued yesterday morning for the 18 women of questionable character against whom indictments were brought by the grand jury Saturday and the papers placed in the hands of Sheriff S. P. Cowan for service. Judge Peebles told Sheriff Cowan that the bonds for appearance at next term of court might be made $100 and those arrested gave bond in this sum, or put up the cash.

Eleven of the number, all white, were arrested during the day, nine by Sheriff Cowan and Deputy Sheriff Cox and two by Constable Savage. Those arrested by Sheriff Cowan and Deputy Cox being Mattie Allen, Nellie Russell, Trixey Johnson, Nellie Berry, Nannie Jones, Willie Tapp, Bessie Gibson, Maud Martin and Louise Mebane, while Constable Savage arrested Eva Davis and Phoebe Scott. Sheriff Cowan said that there was a mistake in a name in one of the indictments, no such person living here, while the other six had left the city.

SENT OVER TO HIGHER COURT

White Man Giving His Name as Jim Sweeney Charged With Burglarizing Negro's House—Other Cases Yesterday.

A white man giving his name as Jim Sweeney, about 33 years old, and telling conflicting stories as to his residence and length of time he has been in Wilmington, was arraigned in the Recorder's Court yesterday morning on the serious charge of burglarizing the residence of Albert Cooper, an old colored man, who lives on 13th and Dock streets, early Sunday morning, being virtually caught red handed in the act, according to the evidence. He was committed to jail without bond to await the action of the next term of Superior Court.

While in the vicinity of 13th and Dock streets early Sunday morning, Mounted Officer D. W. Coleman heard the report of a revolver and rushed in the direction from whence came the sound, not proceeding far before he noticed a man, bare-headed, speeding along toward him. The officer grabbed the young man, who in reply to questions stated he did not now anything of the cause of the report of the revolver. He could not give any reasonable reply to a question as to why he was running, so the officer insisted that the young man accompany him on a short trip of investigation. The officer went to 13th and Dock streets and found that a crowd had already gathered at Cooper's house. Cooper recognized the man with the officer as the one who got practically in his house a few minutes before. Sweeney then made a dash for his liberty, but the officer was too quick for the young man to make a getaway. The officer was given a lively tussle, however, before he succeeded in getting the nippers on Sweeney. In a short time "Black Maria" had answered a call and the man giving his name as Sweeney was behind the bars at the City Hall.

Albert Cooper, who is sick, was awakened by a noise as if some one trying to break in. His wife was aroused about the same time and she noticed a man with his head and most of his body inside the house, while the other portion of his body was dangling from the window on the outside. The window was resting on the man's back. She warned him to leave the premises and as he made no effort to get out she called to her son to bring a pistol. The mention of a pistol caused the man to extricate himself and drop from the window, running off at a rapid pace. In the meantime, the younger Cooper had gotten the pistol and fired through the window, merely to frighten the intruder, who continued his run until interrupted by Officer Coleman.

Judging by the way Sweeney cross-examined the witnesses against him yesterday morning, he is an expert in court matters. He conducted his defense in a manner that would have put some of the lawyers to shame. Asked by the Recorder if he desired to make a statement, Sweeney replied in the negative, and added that he would make out his case in the "big court," when he would not only make a statement, but have some witnesses. In other words, he tried to convey the impresison that he has a good defense, but did not care to show his hand until the higher tribunal gets his case, being satisfied that the offense of which he is charged, a capital crime, would have to be finally disposed of in Superior Court. He denies, however, that he tried to enter the house. He appears to be a tramp. He stated to one of the officers that he had been in Wilmington only three days, coming here from New York, and told another that he had been employed for some time on a dredge on the Cape Fear river.

Willie Jenkins, colored, charged with the larceny of a quantity of cigars and cigarettes from the Northern Fruit Co., on Water street, some days ago, was found not guilty and released.

Blain Sloan, colored, at whose store officers found cigars of the same brand stolen from the Northern Fruit Co., testified that he gave the defendant the money, $21, with which to purchase this brand of cigars and some cigarettes; that the cigars and cigarettes were delivered to him, and that the youth said he bought them from the Northern Fruit Co.

The case against Lee Chadwick, a white man, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, to-wit, a brick, on O. C. Styron, some days ago, was continued until today. Lillie Johnson and Lena Frank, colored, were in court to answer a charge of affray, but the evidence developed the fact that both used bottles on each other, and were adjudged guilty of assault with deadly weapon and fined $10 each and costs. A case against Ernest Jenkins, colored, thought to be the negro who shot at Mounted Officers Frank George and John Davis, some weeks ago, charging him with assault with deadly weapon, was continued.

Wm. Brown, colored, was fined $5 and costs for assault on Ella Haywood, colored.

CIVIL MATTERS BEING HEARD

Two Week's Term New Hanover Superior Court Began Yesterday Morning. Now Engaged in Trial of Land Case.

In striking contrast to the scenes in the court room last week, particularly the latter part, when sensational developments came thick and fast, New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of civil issues convened yesterday morning with a mere handful of spectators in the court room and with no trace of that feeling of suppressed excitement and expectancy which prevailed last week. Judge R. B. Peebles is presiding and the term is for two weeks. Only civil causes will be heard at this term and as usual there are a large number on the docket.

When court opened yesterday morning Walter P. Gafford, Esq., counsel for W. J. Sirk, who conducted a wax figure exhibition on North Front street a few days last week, and against whom the grand jury brought an indictment Saturday afternoon for common nuisance, filed a plea in abatement on the ground that the show was opend only last week while the indictment set forth that the offense was committed February 1st. Judge Peebles took the view of Mr. Gafford that the State could not change the time merely for the sake of getting jurisdiction and stated that if the offense was committed in less than 60 days the Superior Court did not have jurisdiction. The entry was made that the "action abates." The defendant gave Sheriff Cowan $200 Saturday to cover his bond for appearance at the next term of court and this was returned to him. As stated Sunday morning, the exhibition was closed Saturday night, following the issuance of a warrant before Justice Bornemann.

The trial of the first case on the civil docket was entered into yesterday morning, the action being enitled T. R. Williams against D. K. Futch, et al., and involves a tract of about 40 acres of land on the Castle Haynes road, about four miles from Wilmington, and is very valuable, being worth it is said, more than $100 an acre. It is an ejectment proceeding. The plaintiff formerly lived in this county, but now resides in South Carolina. The entire day was consumed in the hearing of this case and when court adjourned for the day not all the witnesses had been examined. It is thought that a big portion of today will be required to finish the case. The plaintiff is represented by Louis Goodman and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., while appearing for the defends are Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, Hon. John D. Bellamy and A. J. Marshall, Esq.

It is understood that the next case on the docket, that of the Murchison National Bank against the Dunn Oil Mills Co., will be taken up as soon as the land case is disposed of. The first trial of this case was in 1908 and a new trial granted on the ground that one of the jurors was a stockholder in the bank. The second trial in January of last year resulted in a mistrial. It is probable that three days will be consumed in the trial of this case. The plaintiff is represented by Rountree & Carr and Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, while J. C. Clifford, Esq., of Dunn, and Kellum & Loughlin and Hon. John D. Bellamy appear for the defendant company.

The case of Amus Cuffy against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., was continued for the plaintiff until the next term of court while judgment was signed for the plaintiff in the case of the Norfolk Creosoting Co., against A. J. Robbins.

AFTER MR. MOSQUITO.

Campaign Begun In Earnest Under Direction of Alderman Ellis.

Under the direction of Alderman S. J. Ellis, chairman of the Sanitary Committee, the campaign on the mosquito has been begun in earnest and with the proper co-operation from the general public there is no reason why the pest should not be made to "take a back seat" in Wilmington during the next few weeks. Mr. Ellis has employed some five or six persons and was engaged yesterday in draining pools of water tributary to Macomber's ditch, between Princess street and the cemetery, and next the pools around Greenfield mill pond will be tackled. Two barrels of "C. A. S." oil, prepared especially to combat the mosquito, killing the larvae, have arrived and is being distributed on pools that cannot well be drained. The idea is to have the men who are engaged in draining and applying the oil call at the different homes in the city and give instructions as to how to wage a successful campaign against the mosquito and it is hoped to secure the hearty co-operation of every house-holder in the city.

The Automobile Accident.

An account of the automobile collision, on Princess, between Seventh and Eighth streets, late Saturday night was given in Sunday morning's paper from information received at the scene of the accident, but it seems that the impression conveyed by those concerned at the scene at the time that there were several persons in each car is erroneous. It was stated yesterday that the car belonging to Starkey Bros., and driven by Mr. Vance Norwood, was occupied only by the chauffeur, while the other car, owned by Mr. R. F. Warren, was occupied only by the chauffeur, Mr. Rudolph Brady, and Mr. Frank Stafford, who was on his way home from his work, the store where he holds a position closing at midnight and during the heavy downpour of rain. As stated Sunday, Mr. Stafford was painfully injured on the army by flying glass from the wind shield, but neither Mr. Brady nor Mr. Norwood was injured. It was stated yesterday that Starkey Bros'. car had lights but appeared dim on account of the blinding rain.

BURGLARY SUNDAY MORNING

Store of Mr. E. B. Snipes Entered and Safe Robbed of Nearly $200—Gained Access Through Transom in Front.

What is considered one of the boldest robberies perpetrated in Wilmington in several months occurred between 1:30 o'clock and daylight Sunday morning at the store of Mr. E. B. Snipes, the grocer at 720 Walnut street. Right under the glare of an electric light, the burglar rolled a barrel to the front door, climbed upon it and cut his way through the transom over the front door, then forced his way into the safe and with a crowbar demolished the drawers and compartments, stealing between $160 and $180 in cash that had been taken in and had not been banked.

Mr. Snipes discovered the robbery Sunday morning about 7:30 o'clock when he went down to his place of business to extinguish a lamp that had been left burning for protection in the store during the night. The safe, he found, literally broken to pieces, but aside from the money, little else was missing except a package of 1,000 Piedmont cigarettes carried in stock. After completiug the burglary Mr. Snipes says that the robber attempted to let himself out through a back door, but finding his way blocked that way, placed an orange box to the front door from the inside and let himself out in that way. It was raining and very dark about the hour indicated Sunday morning and Mr. Snipes says that mud prints were left over the door as the thief crawled in.

The robbery has been reported to the police station, but so far as can be ascertained, there is no clue to the thief.

FIGHT OF THE HATTERS.

Long-Standing Controversy Brought Up in Court Again.

New York, April 10.—The long-standing controversy between the Danbury (Conn.) Hatters and the union, known as the United Hatters of North America, was brought up again today by a reversal of the judgment for $232,240.12, which D. E. Loewe & Company, of Danbury, obtained as damages for the union's alleged boycott of the hat manufacturers' inter-state business.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in a writ of error reversed the judgment of the Circuit Court in Connecticut and set it aside, ordering a new trial. The verdict upon which judgment was originally entered was practically directed by the court, which left to the jurors merely the matter of damages, as the "only question with which they could properly concern themselves." The jury assessed the damages at $74,000, which, in accordance with the conspiracy provision of the Sherman law in the lower court trebled, this the Court of Appeals declared was error.

The opinion of Judge Lacombe says that "It is needless to inquire whether boycotts generally — or this particular variety of boycott — are not unlawful, or under the statutes of some particular State," but declares "if it shows that individuals combined to induce a manufacturer engaged in inter-State commerce to conduct his business as they wish it should be, such obstruction is a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law."

BOAT SUNK; 20 PERISHED.

Watery Graves for Crew and Passengers of Wooden Steamer.

Victoria, B. C., April 10.—It is believed that twenty lives were lost when the little wooden steamer Iroquois, plying between Sidney, Vancouver Island, and the Islands of the Gulf of Georgia, capsized, soon after leaving Sidney today.

Today's disatser was in some respects similar to the loss of the steamer Sechelt, with 26 lives, off Beechy Head, Vancouver Island, March 24th. The Sechelt, a wooden steamer of almost the same speed and dimensions as the Iroquois, was struck by a gale, rolled over on her side and went down in a few minutes. Only one body from the Sechelt was found.

The passengers saved today drifted ashore, with life buoys, in the last stages of exhaustion.

When the Iroquois foundered, part of the upper works were left above water, and persons ashore could see the survivors clinging to that portion of the wreck. The swirl of the waters soon tore off the house an dthe sea was covered with wreckage, amid which men and women struggled for their lives. Of the bodies which drifted ashore many were equipped with life belts.

RECIPROCITY DECISION.

"Favored Nation" Clause Will Not Effect Agreement With Canada.

Washington, April 10.—The customs court in a decision today held in effect that the so-called "favored nation" clause in the existing commercial treaties with England, France and Germany does not restrict the United States in effecting the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada.

The court's decision was brought out by a comparatively unimportant contest over the rate of duty which should be imposed on whiskey imported from England and France. The point involved in the same raised in opposition to the proposed Canadian reciprocity agreement by those who claimed it was practically forbidden by the "favored nations" clause.

A. D. Shaw & Company, a firm of New York importers, protested payment of duty on whiskey from England at the rate of $2.25 per gallon, holding they were entitled to a rate of $1.7', which is imposed on whiskey and other spirits from France. The essence of their claim was that under the most favored nation clause with Great Britain importations from England are entitled to be entered at the same rate of duty levied upon such merchandise when imported from France and the other countries with whom similar treaties have been executed.

ATTACK WAS FAILURE.

Rebels Now Fleeing Are Being Pursued by Federals.

Zacatecas, Mex., April 10.—Luis Moya's attempt to capture Zacatecas yesterday failed. Fleeing northward, he and his band of more than 400 revolutionists are being pursued today by a small detachment of Federals, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Luis G. Pradilio. Forty dead and wounded rebels were left in the streets of the city. In making the attack yesterday, 100 of Moya's men were sent rushing down the sides of the hills into the city. Through street after street they ran, shooting as they went, but inflicting few injuries.

While the attack of Zacatecas was in progress, another attack by a much smaller band was made on San Miguel del Musequcte, a village near here.

The assailants were repulsed with a loss of nine killed.

The dead included Anastasco Kainuro, the rebel leader.

REBELS SURROUND A CITY.

Capture is Now Expected—Situation in Mexico.

Mexico City, April 10.—El Heraldo publishes a dispatch this afternoon from San Juan Baustiatia, the capital of the State of Tabasco, stating that the city is surrounded by rebels and that its capture is expected.

It is also stated that Pichucalco is surrounded by a large force of rebels. Pichucalco is near San Juan Baustiatia.

El Paso, Texas, April 10.—General Stanley Williams, who was killed near Mexicali in an attack on the Federal troops, was a native of Winnipeg according to T. P. Black, of Toronto, who has just arrived here from Chihuahua.

Black says Williams formerly was a sergeant of the Northwest mounted police and served with the Canadian volunteers in the Boer war. His brother, Dr. R. Williams, is said to reside at Superior, Wis.

El Paso, Texas, April 10.—General Juan J. Navarro, commanding military forces in Northern Mexico, denied that he received passports from Mexico City for the Madero peace party or that he had orders to issue any.

"I would have issued them passports had Senor Madero or his agent called on me," said Gen. Navarro. "But no request was made on me for safe transport of the party. I received no passports for them from Mexico City and no orders to issue any, but would have done so had I been requested."

KISS CAUSES TWO DEATHS.

Quarrel About the Price Leads to Double Tragedy in Slavonia.

Vienna, April 10.—A quarrel about the price of a kiss led to the loss of two lives near Eseeg, in Slavonia. Two young people, George Micheitsch and Marie Hippitch, who had just become engaged were walking in the evening on the bank of the Drau river when Mitchelitsch was heard to ask the girl for kisses on account of their impending marriage. She gave them, but in return said it was only fair if she also got an advance of the housekeeping money for furnishing. He agreed, but when she said she wanted half a crown for each kiss he became furious.

Hot words and boxes on the ear followed, but the passers-by only laughed at the lovers' quarrel until they saw a man push the girl into the river. As she fell she caught hold of his coat and dragged him in after her.

The swift current carried them away and both were drowned.

HER STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

Federal Supreme Court Listens to the Story of Boston Nurse Girl.

Washington, April 10.—The monotonous succession of one dry legal question after another was varied today in the Supreme Court of the United States when the justices gave their atention to the story of a Boston nurse girl, lost in the city of Chicago, during the world's fair and who had never been heard from since.

A modest fortune awaits her return, but because of her long absence relatives claim it should be distributed among them.

The girl was Miss Mabel Allen. Her mother and her father died, leaving her the last of her family About the time of the world's fair in Chicago in 1893, she called one day on a cousin, George Nelson, of West Pullman, Ill. From that day to this neither relatives nor friends have heard from her.

BURNED THE PROVISIONS.

Rebels Had Planned to Poison Federals in Mexico.

Mexicali, Mexico, April 10.—Colonel Mayot, comander of the Federal forces, near here today, burned all provisions abandoned by Stanley Williams' filibustering American band, after the fight of Saturday. According to survivors of the latter force Mayot's suspicion that the food was poisoned was well founded. One guerilla said enough cyanide had been mixed with the flour to have killed the entire Federal army.

Both Colonel Mayot and General Salinas, the latter in command of the guerilla garrison here, returned to the Cudahy ranch the stock stolen by Williams' raiders. Part of the stock was abandoned after Saturday's fight and the rest brought here.

Captain John Price, an English veteran of the Boer war, has taken command of the Williams band.

The advance in condition from December 1, 1910, to April 1, was 0.8, as compared with an average decline in the past ten years of 4.4 points.

Rye showed an average condition of April 1, of 89.3 per cent., of normal, against 92.3 a year ago, 87.2 in 1908 and 90.2 the ten-year average.

POTASH DISPUTE AGAIN.

Americans Would Now Settle With German Syndicate.

Berlin, April 10.—It was announced today that the American potash representatives were coming to Berlin to negotiate a settlement directly with the German syndicate without further diplomatic steps.

Private advices indicate an agreement probably will be arrived at fixing the price including the supercontingent tax at a figure acceptable to the Americans. The German syndicate has requested the government to proceed with the collection of the tax which heretofore has been deposited in trust awaiting a settlement of the controversy.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—The taking of testimony before a special grand jury summoned to investigate alleged violations of the anti-betting laws at the Jamestown Jockey Club's race track here was postponed until tomorrow. Judge Lawless merely gave the jury an analysis of the race track law.

DELAY IN SUPREME COURT.

No Decision In Trust Case—Another Anxious Week.

Washington, April 10.—By reason of the failure of the Supreme Court of the United States to announce today its decision in either the Standard Oil or the Tobacco "dissolution suits," another week, least, must pass before the outcome of these cases will be known. Neither was any case decided today touched in any way upon the controversy in the big corporation cases.

Among other business transacted by the court was the restoration of the Missouri two-cent fare cases to the docket for a second argument, and the assignment of the West Virginia two-cent fare case for argument on October 10, next, or as soon thereafter as possible.

The match brought to an end the tournament which began with 38 competitors last Saturday.

Washington, April 10. — Another Washington society belle made her first flight in an aeroplane today, when Miss Leonora Rizero, daughter of the Cuban minister, went aloft with Anthony Jannus, the aviator, in a Rex Smith bi-plane. They rose to about 150 feet and encircled Potomac Park several times. It is probable that Miss Justiz's name will be added to the ranks of the Girls' Aeronautical Reserve which has been formed here as the result of flights made by several Washington society women.

The Independent Ice Co.
Manufactures Absolutely
PURE ICE

This fact can be clearly established in several ways, aside from "the proof of the pudding is chewing of the string."

To begin with we use water from deep wells, cold and pure, made into steam, then condensed to distilled water.

It is then boiled and re-boiled to eliminate the last vestige of impurities, should there be any.

This water is then filtered twice through willow charcoal and is then as pure as water can be made.

We then freeze this water in new galvanized iron cans in brine at a temperature of 10 degrees above zero, making it as hard as ice can be made.

There is no known process of making ice any purer than ours and we can suostantiate any claim that we make.

Demonstrations have proven that ice made as ours is made will melt slower than ice made by any other process, therefore, it follows, if people want pure ice, if they want ice that has genuine lasting qualities, if they want prompt and satisfactory service, they need not go beyond

WASHINGTON SIDELIGHTS

"Red Buck" Tells of Mr. Bryan and the Show of His Hand on Senate Leadership Deal—An Incident.

Washington, April 10.—I predicted several days ago that Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, would be elected minority leader of the Senate. The election was held today. Last Monday the Democrats of the Senate were united on Mr. Martin. No fight was made on him until after William Jennings Bryan appeared on the scene and had several talks with Representative Jones, who is opposing Mr. Martin for re-election in Virginia, and then the acrimonious contest that closed Friday was launched.

The "progressive Democrats of the West," were lined up against the "reactionary Democrats of the South." Col. Bryan and his friends opened fire and the Martin supporters, which included the Bailey camp, answered. Had Mr. Bryan not taken a hand the Senate would have had the same Democratic leader and the elements of the party been on friendlier terms. The bitter fight, accompanied by groundless accusations and sectional feeling, would have been avoided. Nothing seems to have been gained by the interference of the erstwhile leader. This is the way the North Carolina senators put it. Senators Simmons and Overman fought under the same flag in this battle. They resented the attacks made on the South.

Senator Martin is very popular in Virginia. He is a quiet, hardworking party man, and a faithful representative of his people. One of the things said about him was to the effect that he was too much like the rest of the Virginians and other Southerners. He won by a large majority, considering the number of votes cast, but would have had no serious opposition had not Bryan taken a hand. The House as well as the Senate was worked-up over the situation.

Col. Bryan's argument against Senator Martin, or any other Southernor, was to this effect: "He is not in full accord, or sympathy, with" the great movement, the progressive movement, which had its origin in the West, and is now sweeping that grand region, and putting new life in both old parties." It is this new movement in the Democratic party, which has found expression in the Western States, that the statesmen here must encourage, and the party look to for strength and enthusiasm. That will give the party of Jefferson accessions.

The South is called "too conservative." It does not sympathize sufficiently with the "great Western movement" to take charge of it. Virginia, the home of Senator Martin, is described as old-fashioned, settled and ultra-conservative. The people cannot be aroused to the importance of Colonel Bryan's "latest movement." Senator Martin is said to be a natural product of the sleepy Southern State. He travels like the tortoise and irritates the fleet-footed hare from the West. Mr. Bryan is afraid that the insurgents of Iowa, Wisconsin and other Western commonwealths will get out of sight before Senator Martin, the slow-moving, quiet, peaceful Virginian realizes where he is.

The same argument would have been used against any Southerner, especially if, during the recent tariff Congress he had felt constrained to stand by his section, and fight for a square deal in the schedules.

Senator Martin's votes on the tariff are criticised. Fully half of the Southerners voted with him, the records show, and his friends argue that he was right. The duties on lumber for which he voted, they say, are smaller by two-thirds than those provided in the model bill—the Walker tariff measure.

There has been a duty on lumber, barring two years, ever since 1817, and the one voted for by Senator Martin and many of his fellow Southerners is the smallest ever imposed.

But this outcry against his record in the Senate, his supporters declare, is subsidiary, and used to bolster the campaign against him. The fundamental idea is that the South is too conservative.

Three Southerners, Smith, of South Carolina; Davis, of Arkansas, and Owen and Gore, of Oklahoma, made a fight against Senator Martin. Two of these, although they were born in the South and represent a State that lies in the Southern country, cannot be said to represent true Southern sentiment as Oklahoma is almost as far from being a Southern State in spirit, manners, customs and population as Montana is.

This controversy, started and fanned to white heat by the Nebraskan, is the forerunner, it is believed by some of the leading Democrats of the Senate, of a more significant movement. Mr. Bryan has urged the "progressive Democrats of Congress" to stand with the "progressive Republicans" and oppose "reactionary Democrats" and "standpat Republicans." This is the real movement. In the West, especially in that portion of it where insurgents do abound, party lines have been virtually wiped out. Some time ago a "progressive league" was organized. For weeks talk of a new party has been ripe. A half dozen or more "insurgent Senators" were about to declare to enter the caucus of Senate Republicans. There was method in this, the wise ones say. A few "progressive Democratic Senators" threatened to remain out of the caucus that named Senator Martin. There was method in this, Southern Democrats say.

In North Carolina there is talk of "progressive Democrats." Not long ago, a brave, daring Tar Heel, bespoke a "progressive movement." Others took up the cry, until now, in conservative North Carolina, there are many kinds of Democrats—"progressives," "Simmons Democrats," "Overman Democrats," 'Kitchin Democrats," "Aycock Democrats," and so on. But, after all is said, the real Democrats—the good old-time fellow who saved the party from carpet-baggers, populists, green-backers and others, the the "plain every-day Democrat."

Southerners, as a rule, are not taking much stock in the movement to unite the "progressive Democrats,' and "insurgent Republicans" in one grand party. Some North Carolinians fear that there is some connection between the fight on Senator Martin, who, from point of service and ability, is entitled to the place his associates gave him, and the progressive movement. They look for a third party, an outgrowth of the great Western movement that is traveling too fast for average every day Southerners.

The Southerners, a majority of them to say the least, resent the argument and the interference of Mr. Bryan. They say that instead of stirring up strife he should join with Champ Clark, Oscar Underwood, Claude Kitchin and other House leaders and help to harmonize the various elements of the party. He claims that he has played hands off. But, as a matter of fact, he created quite a scene in a room in the Senate office building the other day over Senator Martin. Eight or ten "progressive Senators" had assembled to confer on everal matters. Mr. Bryan was there—he being the only outsider. A Western Senator who had promised to vote for the Virginian rose, and in the presence of all, declared that he was up in the air on the question of a leader. In reply a Southerner, a heretofore Bryan man, said he was not up in the air but favored Martin. This man was not from North Carolina. He gave his reasons. In the midst of his remarks Mr. Bryan, in a pet, jumped up and said that he did not go there to attend any Martin meeting.

"Why," said he, "he has more things against him than Bailey—

"I had better retire."

"That is your privilege," said the Southerner. Whereupon, Mr. Bryan left the room, forgetting his hat, which he sent back for about an hour later. He went in the next room and there conferred with the Democrats as they dropped in.

Up to this time the fight on Senator Martin had not attracted any attention. After this incident the "progressives" became active. All sorts of promises were broken. The man, Senator Shivley, put up to oppose him at the last moment was pledged to him. H. E. C. B.

GOLDSBORO NEWS.

Superior Court This Week—Illicit Distillery Captured.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., April 10.—Superior Court convened here today with Judge Whedbee, presiding. This will be a two-weeks term for the trial of both criminal and civil cases. The criminal docket is large and will doubtless consume much of the time. There are also a number of civil cases to be tried. There is only one capital case on the docket, this being the charge against Roscoe Rivenbark for the killing of Camille Pruitt, in the southern part of the city. There are quite a numebr of "blind tiger" cases also to be disposed of.

Relatives of Mr. Burton W. West, who died a few weeks ago, near the Eureka section of this county, report that while searching about the house they were agreeably surprised to find $3,000 in currency which had been hidden away by the deceased. $1,400 was found in an old chest and $1,600 in a tin can concealed in the top of the building.

His friends in this city are pleased to learn that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has named Mr. L. M. Michaux as general assessor for Wayne county under a recent Act of the Legislature, at a salary of $4 per day for time actually engaged in the work between May 1st and July 31st, during the next two years.

Sheriff Edwards and other officers captured an illicit distillery near Beaton this week. It was about 90 gallons capacity, but no one was found in the vicinity of the still, the operators presumably learning that the officers were on their trail in time to make their get-away.

Dr. W. K. Lane, of this city, who has been taking a special course for several months in the hospitals of Philadelphia, was married to Miss Edith Ward, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, of this city, on March 25th, the ceremony taking place in Trenton, N. J., at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Dr. and Mrs. Lane are now visiting in Portsmouth, Va., and from there will go to Florida, in which State they will make their future home.

Items of Laurinburg News, Industrial and Otherwise During Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lauringburg, N. C., April 10.—While out for a few miles from town yesterday trying a new "E. M. F. 30," Mr. J. L. McNair ran over a small negro boy. Mr. McNair came up with a wagon going in the same direction which the boy was following. As the machine neared the rear of the wagon the boy looked around and saw it. Without looking again he started to run out to the side of the road, and at the same time McNair turned to the same side to pass. The machine was running at a very slow speed but could not be stopped until one of wheels had passed entirely over the body of the boy. He was taken from under the machine and carried to the James Sanatorium. H. be badly hurt but the extent of his injuries could not be told until today. Today he is resting well and it is not thought that there is any internal injuries.

Fayetteville Presbytery will meet here next Tuesday and will continue in session for three or four days. A hundred or more delegates are expected. The Presbytery comprises the counties of Scotland, Robeson, Cumberland, Harnett, Johnson, Chatham, Moore, Hoke, Richmond and Montgomery, and has under its jurisdiction about one hundred churches. One of the features of the session will be a sermon by Dr. W. C. Brown, of Raeford, on Thursday on "The Deity of Christ.'

At a meeting on yesterday in the office of the County Superintendent of Education, G. H. Russell, the chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and the Mayor of Laurinburg, together with the Superintendent, elected Dr. John S. Gibson, of Gibson, and Dr. Allen McLean, of Wagram, as the other members of the County Board of Health.

Scotland county is soon to have another railroad operated within its borders. The Rockingham Railroad Company will, at an early date, have completed its line extending from Rockingham, in Richmond county, to Gibson, in this county. This line will extend across one of Scotland's finest melon and cotton sections and will work wonders toward further development.

McLaurin & Shaw, grocers, and one of Laurinburg's largest firms, will on next week move into the store formerly occupied by the Planters' Trading Company. The move is to be only for a short time and will be for the purpose of tearing away the building now occupied by them and erecting a handsome store building.

FARMERS' TELEPHONES.

More Than 350 Rural 'Phones in Carolinas During March.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—More than 350 farmers in North and South Carolina completed plans to put telephones in their homes during the month of March. To be exact there were 164 such farmers in North Carolina and 208 in South Carolina. All of them will be connected with the town nearest them and will get city service and long distance service through the Bell System.

Reports received at the headquarters of the Southern Bell Telephone Co., here indicate that all records for the number of farmers arranging for telephone service during any one month were broken during March.

In the various States comprising the territory of the Southern Bell Co., 2,011 farmers contracted for service connection with the Bell System, as follows: Alabama, 445; Georgia, 318; North Carolina, 164; South Carolina, 208; Virginia, 55; West Virginia, 821.

The spread of the rural telephone has been one of the most progressive steps taken by the Southern farmer, and the advantages accruing to the farmer have been sufficient to create a demand for telephone service in all sections.

The rapidity of the growth may be appreciated when it is stated that there were 11,309 farmers connected with the Southern Bell System on March 1, 1910, and there are now approximately 25,000 such stations connected or under contract. Of these more than 4,883 are in North and South Carolina.

The farmers' telephones reported for the month of March in North and South Carolina are practically all new telephones and represent the actual construction of telephone lines by co-operative farmers' telephone companies. The State is a net work of such lines and almost every section of the State can be reached by telephone. Those farmers' lines connected with the Bell System can be reached by long distance, so that the farmer, in addition to being in constant communication with the nearest town can reach almost any point within a radius of 1,200 miles.

The farmers own and maintain their own lines and in almost every case the construction and equipment is of standard specification, so that these lines can be satisfactorily used for long distance service. This plan of ownership and maintenance of lines by the farmer enables each one to secure service with the nearest Bell Exchange at rates as low as 50 cents per month.

The rural telephone is proving of particular value in enabling the farmer to ascertain market conditions, to get the weather reports, to obtain aid in emergencies in addition to providing a means of social pleasure for his family.

BRYAN BELLIBERENT.

Regards Election of Martin as Unfortunately for Democracy.

Washington, April 8.—William J. Bryan tonight declared that he regarded the election of Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia,as minority leader of the Senate, as very unfortunate for the Democratic party, saying Mr. Martin represented the re-actionary element and the rule of seniority invoked in his behalf would not stand examination.

"That rule," said Mr. Bryan, "may do in the army." In representative government the man who is still in the Senate because the people have not had a recent opportunity to put him out ought not to speak with more authority than the man who comes fresh from the people.

"The line, however, has been drawn and we make a much better showing this year than two years ago. We have seventeen progressives now and they include nearly all the Democratic senators. Unless the progressive Democrats are less earnest than the progressive Republicans, a number of progressives will be substituted for Martin men two years hence."

Million and a Half in Mill Enterprises Reported to Manufacturers Record—Other Industrial Undertakings of Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Baltimore, Md., April 8.—In the first three months of this year, according to figures in this week's issue of the Manufacturers' Record, there were announcements of additions of 59,500 spindles and 1,660 looms to the textile equipment of the South in spinning and weaving, and of eight knitting mills.

The investment represented by the spindles and looms will aggregate about $1,500,000 and the aggregate capital of the new knitting mills is $107,000. Five of the knitting mills will be in North Carolina and one each in Alabama, Georgia and Maryland. Of the total investment in spindles and looms $1,000,000 represent one plant alone. Among the important Southern industrial and other developmental announcements of the week are the following:

Champion Lumber Co., Canton, N. C., was chartered with $5,000,000 capital stock, and purchased for devel-

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

OF NEW YORK

JOHN R. HEGEMAN, President

INSURANCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

The New York Insurance Department has had the Company under examination, pursuant to law, for about fifteen months. After this examination the Superintendent of Insurance said:

THOROUGHNESS.—"It is thought that no Company of this character under the supervision of any Insurance Department in the United States has ever been so thoroughly examined by such a Department."

PAYMENT OF CLAIMS.—"The claims received averaged from 600 to 800 each working day; the percentage of rejections is small, being in 1909 less than one-half of one per cent."

CAREFUL INVESTMENTS.—"On an investment of $100,000,000 in real estate mortgages this Company now holds through foreclosure but one piece of realty."

INDUSTRIAL POLICIES AT COST.—"On this basis this Company, from all of its departments, added to its surplus in 1909, after setting aside in that year as a liability its dividends and bonuses for 1910, about $800,000; in other words, the volume of its business being considered, seems to have furnished insurance substantially at cost."

PROGRESSIVE MANAGEMENT.—The Department Report shows during the last five years:

Reduction in the ratio of expense to premium income.. 7.13%
Reduction in the ratio of lapse to issue..... 10.36%
Reduction of cancellations in first year of insurance.. 8.92%

ORDINARY DEPARTMENT

In 1910 the Company wrote a larger amount of Ordinary business in the United States and Canada than any other company, by TWENTY MILLIONS!

In 1910 the Company placed Ordinary Insurance up to the Limit of the Law and was obliged to hold back hundreds of thousands of dollars of insurance by reason of the New York statute limiting amount in any one year.

MORAL: Get in early this year and avoid the rush at the end. Best plans; cheapest rates; all policies non-participating—that is, the money is not collected on promise of repayment in dividends, but is left in the pockets of the insured by reduction of premium.

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT

OLD POLICIES.—A bonus has been declared to Industrial policy-holders amounting to nearly

SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

payable in 1911 on Whole Life and Increasing Life and Endowment policies issued prior to 1907, which bonuses give reduction of premiums varying, according to period of persistence, from EIGHT TO ONE HUNDRED PER CENT.

The Company added not one dollar to surplus at the end of 1910 out of income from Industrial policies.

NEW POLICIES.—The benefits on policies issued since January 1, 1907, are over

TWENTY PER CENT. GREATER than the benefits promised by policies issued previously.

In the last eighteen years it has declared

TWENTY-FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

in voluntary bonuses over and above all requirements of policies.

WELFARE WORK FOR POLICY-HOLDERS

Extracts from the Report of the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York.

"No summary of this examination of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company would be complete which omitted reference to certain agencies for social service which it has inaugurated and is now conducting."

"CAMPAIGN AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS.—Among the activities of this Company begun since the Armstrong investigation is its participation in the nation-wide crusade against tuberculosis. As to policy-holders, its work has thus far been confined to the dissemination of the literature of prevention and instruction; a work which its great Agency force and close contact with the industrial classes makes easy, as well as effective. As a matter of mere business economics, the Company's activities in this direction entitle it to the approval of the Department."

"NURSING SYSTEM.—About two years ago this Company inaugurated a system whereby trained nurses would, upon request, be sent to the homes of sick or bedridden policy-holders in its Industrial Department. . . . While this service has been but recently established, and while, therefore, the examiners are in some doubt as to its ultimate effectiveness either from the standpoint of saving the lives of policy-holders or minimizing unhealthy conditions, no one can make a personal investigation into what has already been done without being profoundly impressed with, not only the economic, but, more, the beneficent value of the work. Numerous cases where lives have been saved are already on record. Many instances showing improvement in home conditions due to the visits of the nurses are known."

LARGEST COMPANY IN THE WORLD

The largest amount of insurance in force of any Company in the world—$2,215,851,388, covering 11,288,054 policies.
In 1910 the Company made the largest gain in insurance in force of any Company in the world.

Farm Life School in Robeson—State Revenue Case—Oil Contained Gasoline—State Dairymen Appointed—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 10.—There came from State Senator Cobb, of Robeson county, to the State Department of Education this morning, a letter to the effect that in the enthusiastic movement for the establishment of a county farm life school for Robeson, one citizen has already offered $5,000 and 60 acres of land of it and several townships have volunteered to equip such a school if located in their territory.

There are differences as to location, a question that is not to develop until the preliminary matter of voting the $25,000 bonds is settled. Robeson county votes on the question May 9th.

State Superintendent Joyner returned today from Newbern, where he participated in a Craven county rally for establishing a county farm life school Saturday and says the Craven people are almost a unit for the movement, even the town people who are already taxed for their municipal high schools, being enthusiastic for the farm life school.

Attorney General Bickett for the State, and B. F. Dixon, for the State auditor, filed their contending briefs with the Supreme Court today in the case of Governor Kitchin vs. State Auditor Wood, to settle the question of defective 1911 Revenue Act as to the increase of the public school tax levy from 18 cents to 20 cents on the $100 property valuation, the defect coming through failure to adjust the State poll tax to $1.35 instead of $1.29 to maintain constitutional equation with the State propery tax levy of $1.43, the State constitution requiring that the equation of three to one shall be maintained. The attorney general maintains that the fixing of the property tax automatically brings the poll tax to the required equation and the opposition view being taken by counsel for the State auditor, Mr. Dixon, a view that is sustained by Supreme Court precedent in 1897, with Chief Justice Clark dissenting. The plaintiff is seeking to have this Supreme Court precedent reversed.

It is now believed that the terrible lamp explosion that occurred in the home of C. P. Pritchard, in Union county, March 23rd, and caused the death of Misses Gracie Baucom and Will Davis, was due to an accidental mixing of kerosene and gasoline and the selling of this mixture to the Pritchards as kerosene. The samples of the oil just analyzed in the oil inspection division here by Oil Chemist Lockhart, developed this condition and it is thought that the mixing took place in the store of a Marshville drug store. The whole matter is being investigated with a prospect that there may be damage suits instituted against one or another of the dealers through whose hands the oil passed. That inspected showed 15 per cent. of gasoline, making a very high explosive combination.

The Corporation Commission devoted some time today to hearing the case from Asheboro in which petitioning citizens and the Asheboro Telephone Co., want to require the Southern Bell Telephone Co., to give long distance connections on its lines to the subscribers of the Asheboro Telephone Co. The Bell only maintains long distance booths there and has no local exchange. Here in the interest of the Southern Bell were President W. T. Gentry and ex-Judge Lawton, of Atlanta, and District Superintendent M. B. Speir, of Charlotte. The contentions of the Asheboro interests were presented by W. C. Hammer, J. A. Spence and others. Differences in equipment and disagreement as to division of tolls are among the chief troubles between the adjustment desired.

The penitentiary authorities say that Chas. Murphy, the Yancey county man brought there last week to await termination of his appeal to the Supreme Court from conviction for murder, and sentenced to be electrocuted June 30th, has settled down to an evident patient wait for the outcome of his appeal still manifesting signs of weak mindedness or insanity that his counsel insist caused him to commit the murder, which was the shooting of John Simmons because he would not stop and give him a drink as they passed in the road. Murphy and two friends were drinking at the time. It is expected that the case can be gotten through the Supreme Court this term. Then, if the sentence is affirmed there will be an effort to secure executive clemency on the ground of insanity.

Commissioner of Agriculture Graham announces the appointment of W. H. Eden as State dairyman to succeed J. A. Cannover, resigned, to take charge of the mammoth dairy of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Eden is an A. & M. College graduate and has been assistant to Dairyman Cannover two years.

THAT ENGLISH ESTATE.

Some Additional Information for Prospective Pearsall Heirs.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., April 10.—That the rays of the Morning Star do shine to far distant points is well demonstrated from the following letter:

"C. R. Pearsall, Vice President, Treasurer, and General Manager, J. H. Layson & Co., Jewelers, Salt Lake City, Utah, April 3rd.

"Mr. E. D. Pearsall, Rocky Point, N. C.

"My Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of a clipping from the Wilmington, N. C., Star, dated at Rocky Point. The caption of the clipping is "A Big Estate in England," and at the close full particulars are set forth by you.

"In this part of the world we know of no other Pearsalls, and I will be interested to know how much of this article is true and if you can trace my family, I shall be very glad to appropriate $5. Of course, I am too modest to ask for a small bit of the Five Billion Dollar estate in Ireland, and I hardly believe that I could value the coat-of-arms at $25, however, I am interested in all of these things.

My father's name was Edwin Pearsall, his father, Simon Pearsall, and his father, Edmund Pearsall. That is all I know about it. Cooperstown, N. Y., was where my father was born, and there are all sorts of mythical tales about our family owning a large part of Martha's Vineyard Island, and it might be that I could trade a part of Martha's Vineyard to you for a part of Ireland. I shall be interested to hear from you. Yours very truly, CLIFFORD R. PEARSALL."

We are delighted to hear from our cousin Clifford, and when we "come into our own" will gladly exchange some Irish grit for a Summer home on Martha's Vineyard—we were there last May, and things looked awful bleak then. In the meantime, we are using due diligence to investigate our claims. Enquiring correspondence has become so voluminous from the many heirs, assigns, etc., that we will ask the Morning Star to act as medium for publication and ask that our numerous cousins and heirs-at-law subscribe for the daily edition, and thereby keep posted as to future developments. Those wishing family crests and coats-of-arm can consult the College of Heraldry, E. C. London, this information being obtained from our valued friend, the Philadelphia lawyer. We are expecting an early reply for the benefit of our numerous cousins, to be published at an early date in the Star. "For we have cousins galore, of which we never heard before," and should any of them care to invest in our share of the deal, we, being a little short, will close out cheap, and will give all our interest in these estates to their heirs and assigns forever, for only $500,000, subject to a discount of two per cent. for spot cash. E. D. PEARSALL.

P. S.—Don't fail to subscribe for the Daily Star to get full particulars. We have a rich cousin down in Texas, who owns a good size slice of the State, but have heard nothing from him. He doesn't need the inheritance in his "biz."

CROPS IN COLUMBUS.

Outlook is Good—Berries and Fruit. Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., April 10.—Editor Gantt, of the News-Reporter, last Saturday and Sunday, with Mr. Maxwell, of the Wilmington Star, took a drive of over 50 miles over the county, going to Hon. J. G. Butler's one road and returning another road. They carefully investigated crop conditions, and found farmers well up with their work. Land has been well prepared and a good deal of corn is up, with a splendid stand. Inquiries were made and farmers say they have not seen a sign of the strawberry weevil as yet. The plans are white with blooms and full of young berries. The tobacco acreage will be greatly reduced, owing to a lack of plants. More cotton will be planted than last year, but there will be plenty of food crops made. The outlook for farmers was never brighter. A great deal of ditching has been done and much fresh land cleared. Mr. Butler, in speaking of the productiveness of the land around Pireway, said one farmer made 1,000 pounds of lint cotton on an acre and did not use a pound of commercial or any other fertilizers. The people around Pireway are anxious for a railroad, for that is all needed to build up and develop that fine section of country.

There was a heavy rain Saturday night, and Sunday it was very cold, but the weather has somewhat moderated today. This rain was badly needed by strawberries, and is worth thousands of dollars to the growers of Columbus, while the cold spell will keep back the weevil. Pears and plums have all been killed, there may be a few peaches left. Apples are just blooming and will probably be safe.

FARM LIFE SCHOOL.

Craven County Will Likely Have First in State.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., April 9.—State Superintendent Joyner addressed a joint meeting of the Farmers' Union and County Teachers' Association yesterday in the Court House on the proposed Farm Life School. The Teachers' Association was out in force and practically every precinct in the county was represented by farmers. The meeting was presided over by Mr. D. P. Whitford, president of the Farmers' Union, and Supt. E. H. Moser, of the Teachers' Association. Mr. Joyner made a strong and convincing speech in favor of the Farm Life School, showed its advantages to the county and his deep interest in the project. This county will be the first to vote on the Farm Life School on May 2nd, followed by Robeson county on May 9th. Mr. Joyner was very much pleased with the outlook and there seems little doubt that the movement will carry and that Craven county will have the first Farm Life School to be established in the State. After Mr. Joyner's address short talks were made by Senator E. M. Green, Representative R. A. Nunn, Judge H. R. Bryan, D. P. Whitford, J. S. Morton, N. M. Lancaster, H. B. Craven, A. D. Ward, C. E. Foy, G. T. Richardson and others. A strong organization for a thorough campaign before election was formed and the entire county will be canvassed thoroughly.

INJURED AT DOVER, N. C.

Young Physician Plunged Into Shallow Water, is Paralyzed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Dr. T. S. Faulkner, of Kinston, N. C., 25 years old, a graduate of the University College of Medicine and a former interne at the Virginia Hospital, was brought to Richmond Saturday, suffering from what is believed to be a fracture of the cervical vertebrae. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital by his physician, Dr. Albert Parrott, of Kinston, and his condition is said to be serious.

The young physician was employed by the Goldsboro Lumber Company, at Dover, N. C. Saturday morning he participated in a "shad stew" at Fort Barnwell. He joined with others in hauling a seine, and afterwards went bathing.

Mistaking the depth of the water, and diving in what he believed to be much more than his height, Dr. Faulkner miscalculated, and struck his head upon a hard, sandy bottom. Seeing that he did not come to the surface, friends hurriedly went to his aid and brought the unconscious form to the shore.

Examination showed that he had been completely paralyzed. Dr. Parrott hurried with him to Richmond. It is likely that he will be operated upon today.

Dr. Faulkner is well known in Richmond. He secured the degree of M. D. last year and began his career in the Virginia Hospital. Recently he was engaged by the North Caroiina lumber company as its staff physician.

The full extent of his injuries have not yet been determined.

I value this remedy highly in return for what it did for me. There was a constant, dull pain in the small of my back and some days I could hardly get about the house. The kidney secretions bothered me and I had but little strength or energy. I used several tonics and remedies, but nothing gave me relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured at Bellamy's Drug Store. BRYAN BELLIGERENT.

High Point Murderer Sentenced Yesterday at Greensboro.

Greensboro, N. C., April 8.—Moses Speaks, the High Point double-murderer, who was yesterday convicted of murder in the second degree, was sentenced to thirty years in the State penitentiary today, this being the maximum penalty for second degree murder in this State. Speaks thanked the court for rulings during the trial and voluntarily told Judge Daniels that he killed his wife because she caused him to loose $200 in a trade. He gave no reason for the fatal assault upon Willie Miller, his son-in-law.

BRONCHITIS.

To Whom It May Concern.

Bluevale, Ont., May 4, 1910. "I was sick for two years with chronic bronchitis and a consequent run-down condition. I received no benefit from doctors or from a trip which I took for my health and I had to give up work. Vinol was recommended and from the second bottle I commenced to improve—I gained in weight and strength, my bronchial trouble disappeared, and I am at my work again. I want to recommend Vinol to anyone who is in need of such a medicine." Thomas Higgins. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cod's livers aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in curing bronchitis.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles, not a palliative like cough syrups.

Vinol contains no oil or drugs and is far more efficacious than cough mixtures, because it cures the cause. Try it. If you don't think it helps you, we will return your money. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time." Robt. R. Bellamy.

READY FOR TRACK MEET.

Wake Forest Wednesday and Easter Monday Event—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., April 10.—Captain J. M. Sherman of the track team, has announced the list of events for the track meet with Wake Forest College on the local grounds tomorrow afternoon, and the entries for A. & M. are as follows:

110-yard dash—Robertson and Sullivan.

220-yard dash—Robertson and Sullivan.

440-yard dash—Small, Potter and Blount.

Half-mile—Small, McIver, R. R., and Nichols.

One mile—Kephart, King and Nash.

Two mile—Eason, Trotter and Smith, Frank.

High hurdles—Sherman and Robertson.

Low hurdles—Sherman and Parrish.

High jump—Robertson, Yerby and Stafford.

Broad jump—Williams, Yerby and Robertson.

Pole vault—Hurtt and Bryan.

Shot put—Floyd, Glenn and McIver, C. D.

Hammer throw—Floyd, Hurtt and McIver, C. D.

From the list of contestants, it will be seen that A. & M. has only a few old men on this year's team, the majority of the men on the team being Freshmen. The old men who will compete, are Robertson, Sullivan, Small, Nichols, Eason, Trotter, Sherman, Parrish, Hurtt, Bryan, Stafford Floyd and Glenn; Hartsell, Cooper and Gantt, of last year's team will be greatly missed in the dashes. King, a Freshman, in whom great dependence is put to win the mile run, is now in the hospital and it is not known whether he will be in shape to run next Wednesday.

This meet will be the first track event of the year, taking the place of the meet scheduled with Wake Forest on March 29th, which was postponed by A. & M., on account of injuries to one of the best men on the team, and the meet scheduled with Guilford College, at Guilford, on the 6th, being cancelled by Guilford on account of wet grounds.

Final arrangements for the State Inter-collegiate Track Meet, which will be held on A. & M.'s track on Easter Monday morning, and participated in by Wake Forest, A. & M., the University of North Carolina, and probably Davidson and Trinity, are being pushed by Dr. B. J. Ray, of A. & M., who is setting up the meet.

AIMED AT NORTH CAROLINA.

Webb Introduced Bill to Stop Shipment of Intoxicants.

Washington, April 10.—Representative Webb, of North Carolina, today introduced a bill making unlawful the shipment of intoxicants of any kind from one State or Territory into another State or Territory, provided such shipment is contrary to the law of the State or Territory into which it is made.

Savannah, April 10.—First sales of turpentine since the close of last season, March 31st, were recorded today. The price was 90 cents a gallon, a drop of 12 cents from the price of yesterday, which price, of course, was merely nominal. The coming in of the new crop caused the drop.

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN B. GREATON, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

METROPOLITAN'S SHOWING

Company is Highly Commended by the Superintendent of Insurance for Its Progressive Management—Business.

Of unusual interest, in view of criticisms which have in the past frequently been made of so-called "Industrial Insurance," is the recent report of the Honorable William H. Hotchkiss, superintendent of insurance of New York. Superintendent Hotchkiss' examiners have in the last 16 months made an exhaustive investigation of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and the report embodies their conclusions.

Incidentally, the report brings out other interesting information regarding the company. It will probably come as a surprise to many of our readers that the Metropolitan is not only the leading company in industrial insurance, but that during the last year it wrote practically $150,000,000 ordinary insurance, the maximum permitted by the New York law. For a company that has been known in the past primarily as an industrial company, this is a remarkable showing. If business written in foreign countries other than Canada be excluded, the Metropolitan wrote $20,000,000 more ordinary insurance than its nearest competitor. There are at present over $700,000,000 insurance in force and, including industrial insurance, over $2,215,000,000. In fact the company was compelled to stop issuing policies for which application was made during the last days of the year in order to keep within the law.

Mildly speaking, the report is decidedly commendatory. In an impartial and judicial manner, Superintendent Hotchkiss expresses his profound conviction that industrial insurance as practiced by the Metropolitan has had the welfare of the policy holders only in mind, and that the officers of the company have bent every effort to cheapen the cost of such insurance to reduce lapses, and in general so safeguard at every turn the interests of their upwards of seven millions of policy holders. The superintendent writes almost admiringly of the reduction and management expense of nearly 7 per cent. and in the lapse rate of approximately 10 per cent. Tersely stated, Mr. Hotchkiss shows that insurance for the masses is given practically at cost, and that the dividends to stockholders, limited by the by-laws of the company to $140,000, were insignificant when compared with annual premium receipts of $70,000,000.

Under separate headings, Superintendent Hotchkiss discusses other important topics, such as compensation to agents, payments of claims, bonus distributions and concessions. Nothing more clearly indicates the character of the service which the company renders to its policy holders than the unadorned statement that of the total claims presented for payment, only one-quarter of one per cent. was rejected; that the company will voluntarily return to policy holders in 1911 over $5,700,000 in cash bonuses, making a total of over $25,000,000 thus returned without any obligation of any kind on the part of the company to do so.

One thing more should be mentioned here in this connection to prove the force of Superintendent Hotchkiss' statement. Since January 1, 1907, the company has twice increased the benefits on new policies 10 per cent., and has set aside over $4,000,000 additional reserve to pay additions to policies in the shape of mortuary benefits.

We should state here very frankly that we would not give this amount of free advertising to the Metropolitan if we believed the company to be purely a business undertaking. Through certain of its activities, the company has plainly indicated that it is not in business for profit, but that it has become a social institution. As such, it is entitled to our recognition. We are led to this conviction by Superintendent Hotchkiss' hearty and unstinted commendation of the campaign against tuberculosis, the nursing service for policy holders and the sanatorium for employes, three decidedly important and unique activities for social betterment which the company has been prosecuting for several years.

It is stated that 18 per cent. of the deaths on which the company pays claims are from tuberculosis. As we view it, if this excessive and unnecessarily high mortality can be reduced, it benefits not only the company but all of its policy holders. In the final analysis, it means cheaper insurance. The same idea underlies the visiting nurse service which at present is given to over 4,000,000 policy holders and which is rapidly being extended. The Supreme Court of New York, in rendering its decision permitting the company to erect a sanatorium for employes, voiced a new doctraine which will become historic, when it stated that a corporation not only had the right but that it was its duty to look after its sick employes.

Summarizing his conclusions, Superintendent Hotchkiss expresses his belief that industrial insurance with premiums payable weekly to collectors is a necessity for the industrial masses, and that such insurance must be furnished either by private corporations or by the State. In his opinion, however, the State is not ready to assume such a burden. We can readily believe that under the leadership of companies like the Metropolitan, as shown by Mr. Hotchkiss' report, industrial insurance is in safe hands, and its further development can wisely be left to such companies.

SOUTHERNERS IN WASHINGTON

All Quiet After Senatorial Caucus—Geo. Bellamy, Jr., Secretary to Mr. Godwin—Capt. Crisp Talks Interestingly.

Wilmington Star Bureau,
Congress Hall.
(By H. E. C. Bryant.)

Washington, April 10.—All is quiet after the storm among the Senate Democrats. Senator Martin, although he wears battle scars, is as affable as ever. He does not blame anyone for the fight precipitated upon him at the last moment of the contest. He is not a man of harsh words.

"It is all over and we will have harmony," said he today. "We must present a united front to the enemy."

Senator Overman, of North Carolina, took a leading part in the Senatorial fight. He was for Senator Bacon for leader. In fact, he managed the Bacon boom, mustering more than 20 votes, but when the Georgian saw that he could bring peace by withdrawing he did so and Senator Martin was entered, and the Bacon supporters, Mr. Overman among them, became Martinites.

There is some feeling against Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, who has been very aggressive against same of the Southern senators, for his vote on the oil schedule was far from Democratic. He should be the last man to try to dictate to a fellow Democrat. They say he is pointed out as the only Democrat in the Senate that voted the way the Standard Oil Company wanted him to vote on oil tariffs.

Senator Stone told some one Saturday that the "progressives" would be good now. Senator Martin has the satisfaction of knowing that only two Southern Senators, Smith, of South Carolina, and Davis, of Arkansas, and neither of them rank very high, voted against him. Senators Gore and Owen and Stone and Reed are not classed as Southerners.

Representative Godwin has appointed George H. Bellamy, Jr., of Brunswick, private secretary. He is a son of State Senator George Bellamy, chairman of the "second" turbulent convention which nominated Mr. Godwin at Wrightsville Beach, and is a young man with commercial college education and will well fill the duties of the exacting position.

Capt. R. O. Crisp, of the Revenue Cutter Seminole, with headquarters at Wilmington, has been here several days. He desires to succeed Capt. Commandant Worth G. Ross, chief of the revenue cutter service, who, on account of ill health, must retire soon. Capt. Crisp was born in Maryland, but has identified himself with North Carolina by nine years' service. For several years he has patrolled the coast from Hatteras to Charleston, covering a distance of about 300 miles, and making a cruise of 1,700 miles a month during the four Winter months of the year.

"The revenue cutter service," said Capt. Crisp, when asked to say something of his work, "was first organized to keep down smugglers. Later it became an aid to the navy, especially during wars. Decade after decade its duties have increased. We supervise the merchant marine, seeing that the ships are provided with life preservers, and inspecting things generally. In the Winter season we patrol the coast to aid distressed vessels. It is our duty to destroy wrecks or derelicts that we cannot take ashore. Chasing derelicts becomes very interesting at times. Some of the floating boats are hard to find. We get a report that a stray vessel, without crew, is in our territory, and we go in search of it. If it is found we tow it in, blow it up, or set fire to it.

"One of our pleasant and spectacular duties is to act as police at yacht races. We act as drill masters and military inspectors for the life saving service.

"The Seminole has six officers and 60 men, four guns, and carries gun cotton mines."

Capt. Crisp is very entertaining. While in the city he has made many new friends.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

There is a natural element of the circlation known as plasma, a fibrous constituent which is the true healing quality of the blood. This plasmic property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but becomes a source of irritation to any wound or open sore or ulcer on the flesh. The blood continually discharges the impurities into the place and gradually the infection spreads and the sore enlarges. External applications cannot cure an old sore, because such treatment does not affect the blood; the most that can be expected from plasters, washes, salves, etc., is a cleansing, soothing effect on the ulcer. S. S. S. heals old sores in a perfectly natural way. It goes down into the blood, and removes the impurities and morbid matters that are the means of keeping the ulcer open; then the sore is bound to heal. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation, but it restores the healing, plasmic qualities and aids in promoting every necessary quality for good health. S. S. S. builds new flesh tissue from the bottom of the ulcer to the outer skin, and makes a permanent cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. FURTHER STRENGTH IN COTTON

Market Was More Active and Closed Firm at Net Gains of Eight to 22 Points—Offerings Not Aggressive.

New York, April 10.—The cotton market was more active today and showed furtner strength with old crop months leading an advance which carried the market into new high ground for the movement. The close was firm at a net gain of 8 to 22 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 8 points in response to better cables than due, large Liverpool spot sales, but Manchester trade advices bullish, talk of a better spot demand in the South and predictions of increased exports owing to slightly larger estimates for tomorrow's ports. After showing a net advance of about 8 to 10 points on old crop positions there was a slight reaction as a result of realizing and selling for a turn but the bulls seemed to have moderate supporting orders on any little dip, offerings did not become aggressive and during the afternoon many of the early sellers seemed to be covering. At any rate, the best prices of the day were reached during the late trading when May sold at 14.68 and July at 14.62, or 11 to 19 points net higher, and at the highest level reached since the big break of last February. While still relatively quiet, August seemed to be attracting more attention than formerly and was relatively firm, selling 3 to 4 points above the closing figures of Saturday. Southern weather advices, while suggesting unsettled conditions were not generally regarded as unfavorable, but there was comparatively little selling of new crop positions, and the Fall and Winter months worked up 9 or 10 points in sympathy with the old crop strength. There was considerable selling of May against purchases of July during the day, and the May premium was cut down to about 7 points. Part of this was attributed to the switching of a May long line into the Summer month and part of it to an undoing of old straddles, but while there was believed to be some scattered selling of May against possible shipments from the South as yet nothing is heard of any large amount of cotton heading in this direction.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands 14.75; middling gulf 15.00; no sales. Futures opened steady and closed firm.

SPIRITLESS DAY IN STOCKS

Although There Were Several Happenings of Favorable Import on the Market—Still Awaiting Court Decisions.

New York, April 10.—Stocks jogged along with a few changes through a spiritless day in spite of the fact that there were several happenings of favorable import which at other times might have stimulated trading. The course of the market today emphasized the pronounced disposition of the street to do nothing until present certainties are cleared up.

Chief among these uncertainties are the forthcoming decisions of the Supreme Court in the anti-trust cases, and as this was the court's "decision day" trading virtually stopped until word came from "Washington that the decisions were not to be announced today." Then there was an attempt to bid up prices, but it met with so little success that it was soon abandoned and the market fell off slowly, the net rise being a number of trifling declines.

The bond market was steady. Total sales par value $2,082,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks for the day 169,100 shares.

COTTON MARKET RULED FIRM

Demand Principally For July and August — Movement Upward.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, April 10.—The market ruled firm today with the demand principally for July and August. There were sellers of May all day in such quantities as to lead the trade to believe that the bulls were disposing of their Mays and replacing them with purchases of July. If this is the correct view it is thought to show a desire to receive cotton on July rather than on May, thereby having less cotton to receive. The trade look for this upward movement to continue and few will be short over the Easter holidays. HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

WANTED IN ST. LOUIS?

Durham County Convict May be Murderer and Rapist.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., April 10.—Several members of the city police force brought in from the Durham county roads this morning a negro by the name of William Bossie Francis, who is said to be wanted in St. Louis, Mo., for murder and rape committed there six years ago. While the officers are practically certain that they have the right man, the negro stoutly denies any knowledge of the crime and says that he has lived in Newbern all his life. While at work on the roads near the city this morning he was identified by a negro detective who followed him all the way from St. Louis. The detective says he had a photograph of the negro and that he answered the description almost exactly. The authorities at St. Louis have been notified, and they gave instructions to hold him until a full description can be forwarded. The negro has been in Durham for nearly six years and when identified this morning was serving his second sentence on the Durham county roads.

RESUME OF PRESBYTERY.

Sessions During The Past Week—Report In Detail.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Garland, N. C., April 10.—The eighty-second session of Wilmington Presbytery was held near this place at South River Presbyterian church, and was called to order and constituted with prayer on April 5, at 11:30 A. M. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Sikes, of Burgaw, retiring Moderator of the Presbytery.

The first business of the meeting was the election of a new Moderator, and Dr. George C. Worth, our missionary at Kiangyin, China, and a Ruling Elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, was unanimously and by acclamation, elected to this office. Rev. P. L. Clark, of Clinton, and Mr. W. I. Shaw, of Kerr, were elected temporary clerks. The report of the committee on Home Missions was presented by Dr. A. D. McClure in his usual forceful style, and was very encouraging. Report of the committee on Foreign Missions was presented by Rev. J. S. Crowley, and showed advancement in this great work. Report of the committee on Sabbath Schools was much enjoyed by all, being preesnted by Rev. W. M. Shaw. The report on "Systematic Beneficience" read by Rev. P. L. Clark, was of much importance and brought out much discussion by the members. It advocated a reorganization and thorough systematizing the methods of raising finances for the support of the church, and the practice of business methods in the handling of the funds of the church. Rev. E. B. Carr read a paper on "The Bible Cause" which was enjoyed. The report of the Committee on "Church Property" brought out the startling fact that very little of the church property of the Presbytery is insured. The Presbytery is desirious of having all the church property within its bounds more secure to the church, and this report was laid aside for further consideration and recommendations.

Mr. H. Jerome Stockard, of Peace Institute, in a few well chosen remarks expressed the hope that the Presbytery would join with other Presbyteries to bring about the joint control of the schools of Peace Institute and the school at Red Springs.

Rev. A. D. McClure, of Wilmington, as principal, and Rev. W. M. Sikes, of Burgaw, as alternative, and Ruling Elder O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, and Mr. J. H. Chadbourn, of Wilmington, were elected as Commissioners to the General Assembly which will be held at Louisville, Ky., in May. Several other reports were read by the various committees, and approved by the Presbytery, after which a vote of thanks to those who so royally entertained the visitors was read by Rev. A. D. McClure, and ordered spread upon the minutes of the Presbytery. The minutes of the meeting were read and approved, "Blest be the Tie That Binds" was sung, and the Presbytery was closed with prayer by Rev. W. M. Sikes, adjournment being taken to meet again Oct. 4th, at Mt. Zion church, Rose Hill, N. C., of which Rev. W. P. M. Currie is the pastor.

Rev. M. McG. Shields preached an excellent sermon on Wednesday night, his subject being "Heinousness of Sin" Thursday morning, Dr. J. M. Wells delivered an instructive talk on "Wonders of the Cross." Thursday evening Rev. W. P. M. Currie preached on "The Priesthood of Christ," presenting an instructive interpretation of his subject which was highly enjoyed. Friday morning Rev. J. S. Crowley, of Wilmington, delivered an instructive sermon, taking as his text, Ecclesiastes 12:13, his theme, "Keeping the Commandments and Fearing God." On Tuesday evening before the Presbytery convened, Dr. A. D. McClure delivered a powerful lecture on the 119th Psalm, his general subject being "The Bible." He called especial attention to the King James version of which the present year is the 300th anniversary of the publication. The eighty-second session of the Presbytery as a whole, was a very successful and especially spirited meeting, and gave much encouragement to the devout workers to enter on another year of greater work even than the very inspiring reports showed were accomplished the past year.

BRAINS, MEANS AND HONOR.

Mr. Marshall Gives Standard For Measuring Aspiring Councilmen.

Editor Star:—What kind of men do we need for councilmen to rule our city? Well, if you put that question to me, as an idividual voter, here is about the answer I would like to make. I want men of brains, of means and of honor. An ignorant man is unfit to rule people of intelligence, or to manage their property. A man who has accummulated no property shows himself to be incompetent to take charge of your property and use it as he wills without your consent. And above all, a dishonorable man, a man who will stoop to little, mean things, a man who will affiliate with, aid and abet, the sneaking little swamp distiller, wink at the blind tiger, is certainly unfit to rule over the intelligent, opulent and honorable people of our city.

We want progressive men. But there are many kinds of progressives. We want progressive merchants, progressive bankers, progressive doctors, progressive lawyers, and I might say, progressive blind tigers and swamp distillers. To be progressive is not enough. We should consider what kind of a progressive it is that is asking us for a ballot. Has his progress been along the lines of honor? Is he a man that stands above reproach? Would your mother, your sister, your wife and your daughter support him at the ballot box, had they the right of suffrage? This is a pretty good way to judge a man's fitness to rule over you. When the good women measure up a man you will be safe in backing up their judgment. However, when I speak of women's judgment I, of course, don't mean all women, for some women, I am sorry to say, are unfit and incompetent to judge anything except a beer keg or a whiskey bottle. But when you follow the sentiment of the honorable, intelligent, Christian women of Wilmington in casting your vote, you will not regret your choice for councilmen. Any good, honorable gentleman will favor street improvements, sewerage, water works, sanitation and the general uplift of the name and appearance of our lovely city. Such men have the good of the city at heart. You need not make them promise what they will do, for they will do the best they can without any promises. I don't want nor don't care a continental about the promises of any candidate, for a dishonest man will promise anything and everything to get your vote, but after he gets in promptly forgets them all. Then, let us vote for the man of brains, the man of means, the man of honor.

I'll not vote the long-winner ticket,
I'll not vote for men in the thicket;
I'll vote for no whiskey seller,
I'll vote for the other "feller."

I shall vote only to please myself,
I'll not vote for honor nor for pelf;
I shall vote for men of honor bright,
I shall vote for men who have done right.

I shall vote for men of high esteem,
Men who use the milk and give the cream;
Men who'll work for our city's good,
Men who will help us to get our food.

Men who'll uplift our cit's name,
In the high roll of honor and fame;
Will you not help us in this great work,
And not attempt your duty to shirk?

We all need your help my honest friend,
To stand by us, as we all intend;
To lift our city high up in fame,
And give it an everlasting name!

A VOTER.

NON-RESIDENT WRITES.

Has Some Views on Commission Form of Government.

Mr. Editor, Ladies and Gentlemen:—I have read with interest the much that has been written about the amount of time that the prospective Councilmen can devote to the discharge of duties of the office. I think that it is more important to consider what they can accomplish in the time given. I know men who can accomplish more and better results in two hours than others with whom I am acquainted can in twenty-four hours. I could name one or more but do not wish to expose them to the danger of having the rules suspended, being elected by acclamation. That a man is now doing a great deal of work is evidence that he can do good wrk in short time.

DO YOU PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES?

Those of you who have been making your purchases away from Wilmington should think before patronizing mail order and houses away from home any further.

Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it the mail order house?

Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it the mail order house or was it your home merchant?

When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy person in town, do you write to the mail order house, or do you go to your home merchant?

How much does the mail order house give towards keeping up sidewalks or paying the minister's salary?

When you were sick how many nights did the mail order house sit up with you?

When you had to raise money to pay your gas bill, did you get it from the mail order house or a home merchant or contractor?

When your loved one was buried, was it your home merchant who dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it the mail order house?
